Gentlemen: -

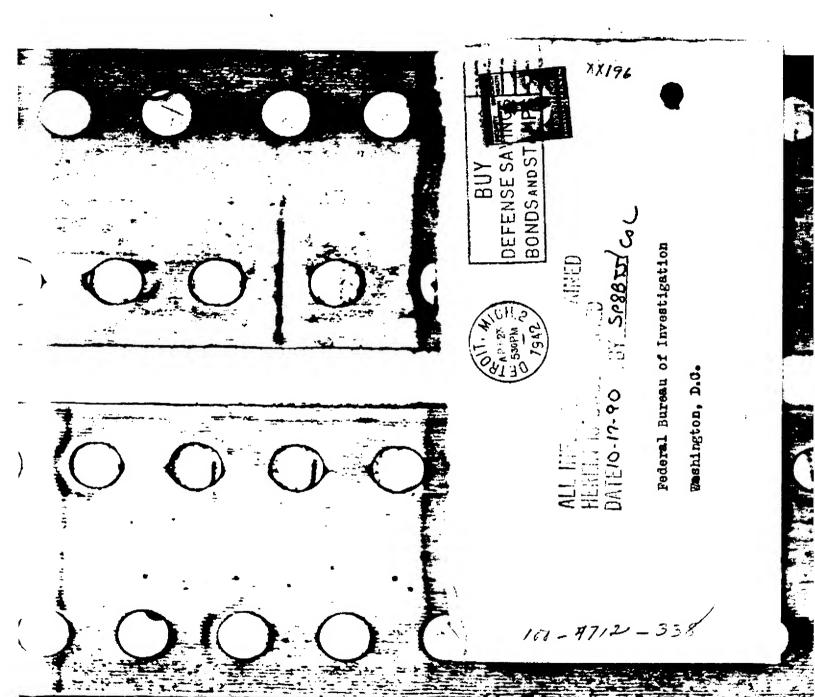

I am quite interested in the protection, etc. of the United States and the Allies, being an American citizen and British descent .

I am very well aware of the fact that there is a lot of feeling in this City for Germany, whether they are naturalized or not - it makes no difference with most of them. I have a lady friend who long before the war became a very good friend of mine - she is from Germany and is a naturalized citizen. She told me herself that she has three brother-in-laws here in Detroit and they work in defense plants and that they did everything they could do, to the last, to keep from doing defense work, as, of course, they are helping make things which the allies are using to fight their own relatives in Germany.

So I feel that these naturalized Germans are the boys who cause a lot of trouble in the factories here - they tell me that plenty of these large machines break down, for no good reason, and that production is held up in many ways. I do not trust one of them as far as I can see them and I guess no good loyal American does.

- Another thing, I heard over the radio from some radio commentator that the America First Committee was going to be investigated, contributions, where to, from whom, etc., I do hope that the FBI will do this very thing, especially in this City, it will maybe do a lot of good and show where the most of the feeling lies. There is a man by the name of Gerald L. E. Smith here, who is no better.

April 5,1942;

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Eachington D.C. Dear Senator Lodge.

I am hoping that this letter will reach you after you have returned refreshed from your Easter recess. It is about something which troubles me very much because of its sinister implications. We all know that the amtorg Company in New York formerly

We all know that the imtorg Company in New York formerly was the headquarters of the OGPU but now that Russia has become sacro sanct and no one must breathe a word of criticism about her I fear that thousheadquarters have spread all over the country.

And that Boston is not free from their sinister practices.

And that Boston is not free from their sinister practices.

Applied be specific. At the out-break of the warthe younger men of American First enlisted. And quite privetely entre nous from what I have observed in the face of one of them at least, I should say that the War Department was making him pay for his baliefs. I saw him to-day and he looked like a man who had been tortured. I hardly knew him. They made him kitchen police and i it is possible that hard work has produced the change. To go on the women of the party continued to keep in touch with each other by meeting once a month at lunch, but of course not carrying on their former activities. Now suddenly they have been subjected enquiry by the FBI on charges of subversive activities. It came to them as a complete surprise. They have no idea who is at the bottom of it but suspect that one of their members is a traitor at least, she brought one day two women as guests and throughout the meeting these women took notes of what was happening in show hand, Nobody saked why because they shad been addepted as guests of a friend. And it was after their visit that the investigation began.

Also the Secretary was visited by women who urged her to bring the members into a peace society and she thought that they were trying to trap her. But she kept clear of them.

they were trying to trap her. But she kept clear of them.

Now my contention is - that if we are not to be treated to the methods of the OGPU, they have a right to know who sent the investigators and why.

I do not altogether accept their explanation because another seems just as plausible to me. It could be the Wilkie campaign carried on under coverbe having announced his intention of purging the Republican party of America First members. Of course there is Bushnell to help with all his power - he could be an OGPU all by himself and no one who heard him speak at the Republican meeting can doubt where he stands. Claiming Wilkie as a leader. Then there was Wilkie's rally at the Women's Republican Club a short whide ago when he spoke of the Republican leaders adding modestly of which I am one."

and then there are the agar-Eichelberger combination who held the red rally in Symphony Hall last winter, shricking with joy when the red flag was unfolded. To play the Internationale it seems has become a commonplace.

I am writing to you entirely on my own iniative without the knowledge of the others. But this is what I am insisting if we are not already a totalitarian state they have a right to know the names of their accusers and of what they are accused.
Which arecific, explicit statements. Let those short hand women with arecific, explicit statements. Let those short hand women read to some authority what they wrote - although I am not sure that it would not be a garried version of what ever they heard

Please help we in this. Once before you showed a letter of mine to J. Edgar Hoover and got his advice. Cannot you put the case to him hypothetically without names or places?

> AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE: INTERNAL SECURITY - G.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated April 25, 1942 confirming information and instructions telephonically communicated to Special Agent of this office by Supervisor of the Bureau, on April 23, 1942 and concerning the examination of material relating to subversive activities in the possession of BISGYER, of the Special Defense Unit of the Mapartment.

On April 28, 1942, following several days of contact with Mr. BISGYER, Special Agent of this office, accompanied Mr. Risgyer in his call New York City. However, at the time of this interview informed that all of the material in question had been returned by him some time ago to and who is known to the Bureau and the New York Field office.

At this time advised that he had secured such material which pertained to subversive activities, particularly concerning the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE, in contemplation of writing a series of articles or a book exposing certain Fifth Column activities in the United States. He spoke considerably, and with apparent sincerity, about the necessity of exposing such activities through journalistic efforts and his hope that such could be accomplished pprox with the cooperation of the Department of Justice and other governmental agencies.

 It should be noted that at the time of this interview, mentioned that he understands that mentioned above, and from whom he had secured his material and to whom he had returned it, is about to publish a book of a similar nature, although he indicated that he questioned the veracity of any matter set forth by

Subsequent to the interview with FMr. BISGYER indicated to accompanying agent that it was his belief that most of the material in ques-

A RICA FIRST COMMITTEE and similar organisations. Such material was produced by and upon examination proved to be reports of his informants relating to activities and personnel of the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE prior to its official dissolution in December of 1941. A preliminary examination of such proved it to be largely worthless material in the nature of bare allegations, Mr. BISGIER so expressing his opinion. However, arrangements were made with for further and more detailed examination of the material in his possession and for the furnishing of duplicate copies of such to the New York Field office where such is possible. It is anticipated that this will be accomplished within the near future and any material of value concerning the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE will be included in reports of the investigation of it which is presently being conducted and any other information of interest from such source will be promptly furnished the Bureau.

It was ascertained through these sources that the America First Committee had never had an organization in Springfield and had never held any meetings here, nor is there any indication of any present membership in Springfield in this organization.

It may be stated that about one year ago Agent attended a public debate held at the Centennial Building, Springfield, between a representative of the America First Committee and a representative of the Committee to Defend America by Defending the Allies. This was attended in a personal and not an official capacity. The writer does not recall the names of the speakers but does recall that both were from Chicago, the representative of the America First Committee being an instructor at the University of Chicago. Debate was very mild and nothing was mentioned which could be construed as subversive.

AT DECATUR, ILLINOIS

Agent personally contacted the individuals listed below regarding this matter:

It was ascertained from the above individuals that this Committee had never had a branch in Decatur, although a public meeting was held in Decatur in the early part of 1941, at which a Chicago America First speaker gave an address. All of the above informants advised that the Committee is totally defunct so far as Decatur is concerned and that there is no indication of any underground movements allied with this organization.

AT PEORIA, ILLINOIS

advised Special Agent that only two meetings of the America First Committee were held in Feorla and that these were during summer of 1941. An effort was made at that time to get the organization going in Feoria and the American Legion kept in close touch with the situation. However, the entire project fell through due to the fact that no one could be prevailed upon to be a candidate for any of the official positions in the organization.

He advised that since those meetings there has been no attempt whatever to revive the organization.

advised reporting Agent that there is no semblance of the America First Committee left in Peoria.

The following individuals were contacted by Special Agent | relative to this matters

He stated that the Committee did not meet with much success in Moline and Rock Island; that it had about two meetings which were fairly well attended and received a small number of memberships in this locality.

In this connection he advised, however, that he had heard that there had been some such attempt to maintain some organization among the former members of the Davenport, Iowa Chapter of the Committee. He could furnish no more specific information regarding this report.

AT PAST ST. LOUIS, ILLINOIS

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent

E. R. MCHALE, Assistant United States Attorney, who is a member of the American Legion and who follows civic affairs closely, advised that he had never seen any indication of the above Committee in East St. Louis.

a branch in East St. Louis. He said on one occasion it was announced that a speaker representing this committee would speak at the City Hall, and he said a check revealed that either two or three people attended this meeting. He commented that this Committee apparently had a good deal of strength in St. Louis, Missouri and he thought it likely that a number of residents of East St. Louis had attended some of the public rallies of the Committee in St. Louis.

The persons interviewed stated there was not the slightest indication of any activity on the part of the Committee in the vicinity at present.

AT SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS

Reference is made to Chicago letter dated April 17, 1942 in which this office was requested to obtain certain information concerning the incorporation of the Lincoln Park Branch of the America First Committee.

In accordance with that request the records of the Corporation Division, Secretary of States's office in Springfield were checked and it was ascertained that the Lincoln Park Chapter, America Pirst Committee, was chartered by the Corporation Division on July 24, 1941, certificate #11366. The object of the corporation, as set out in its certificate of incorporation, is quoted as follows: "To encourage and maintain in the United States of America, 1. peace and the democratic ideal, 2. program of adequate defense, 3. in furtherance of peace in this continent a policy of non-intervention in the affairs of other continents."

The Incorporators and Directors for the first year are listed in order.

E. T.-KIEHL, 440 West Buron street, Chicago

H. E. MARSON, 1044 West Byron Street, Chicago

C. O. SANDS, 111 West Washington street, Chicago

The business office of the Corporation is listed as being located at $7$2 North Clark Street, Chicago.

It was further ascertained that this corporation had not yet filed the annual report of its activities, which was due in February 1942, and that unless same is filed in the immediate future steps will be taken by the Secretary of State to dissolve the Corporation. No further information concerning this organization is available at Springfield.

He pointed out that the WPB was very much disturbed since it appeared that the Navy Ordnance was on the verge of breaking relations with the WPB. By way of background, Paynter advised me confidentially that the full conversion program of the automobile and other industries would not be worked out until August or September, and right now the WPB schedule was only 50 per cent on schedule in production; that the only possible way of making any progress was to speed up industry by putting pressure on for longer hours and fuller use of productive equipment. Further, that Nelson is exerting terrific pressure on industry to speed up and there is some fear that labor . might revolt. The fear that the Navy might break with WPB is based upon the fact that the Navy has indicated they feel that Nelson's pressure might have a tendency toward Sovietizing American industry. Produce Now Or Be Slaves, Nelson Says

Blant Notice Served On Management and Labor by WPB Chief Tours I blie Wrath

Production Blinches Bonald M. Nelson last eight differend abor and management a blumt warning that they had "a last chance" to cooperate in an intensified drive for munitions manufacture, and that if they tailed the "flames of public wrath" would sonsume the standards of American freedom and heree production by totalitarian methods.

Speaking in the second of his series of radio broadcasts to the Mation, Nelson said the way he proposed to increase production was for the Government to set the schedules, supply the materials and make the facilities available, leaving labor and management to "bend every conceivable affort" from that point on.

But if this method fails, he said, in the face of an enemy who uses the "way of bondage, of force," the necessity of having weapons so "transcends all other matters in the sublic mind, either political or economic," that neither free labor nor the principles of free enterprise by management could survive the resulting public wrath.

In one of the most dramatic expects for labor-management cooperation in recent months, Relson painted a simple picture of "tackling this thing in the traditional American way—getting together, cooperatively, to aght the thing through to Indicating the possibilities of the litrice he emouseed last week to raise existing production raise by 25 per cent, Nelson said that if all aquipment now involved in war production were used 24 hours a slay, seven days a week, "we would practically double the man-hours" now going into military production.

Nelson noted that 30 per cent of American war plants now operate enty five or five and one-half days a week. Many plants, he added, close on Sundays. In many others, the second shift uses only 40 per cent of the plant facilities, and the third shifts use only 20 per cent.

This, he concluded, means that thousands of machines needed for See NELSON, Fage 2, Col. 6.

suction boss said that if the facilities of all the Nation's 31 sirstatt engine and propeller plants were used to the same extent as those of the three with the best sacords, production could be increased immediately by 25 per cent. Similarly, if all of America's 183 machine-tool factories operated at the same level of utilization as the top three, machine-tool output would be stepped up by 45 par cent.

he said.
Admitting a "slack" production,
Welson insisted there was no single

Nelson acknowledged that the cooperation be asked between labor and management would not be easy and said be was aware of the "tradition of mutual rivalry and supplicion in some plants vital to our war production."

"But," he added, "I was never strer of enything in my life than I am that we either work together for the common good or we shall inevitably share the common evil of detest."

"We have but little time. That time has been bought at the price of American boys highting on lonely islands, in steaming jungles; by American boys aboard storm-lossed warships warding off the death that strikes from the cokuds and from beneath the wave; by American boys fighting in the best warplanes in the world, planes of which we must make more and more fast. If through sefishness, inertia, indifference or any other cause wallet them down, then the American people will damn us forever more," he said,

Dear Bob:

On my trip to New York, I ran into something quite unrelated to the purpose of my trip that I thought I eught to tell you about.

I may be taking too grave a view of the sircumstances, but what I ran into seems to me to be a serious, organized threat to sabotage our production drive from very questionable quarters.

In short, it would appear that a man now retained by the Mavy to handle their end of the drive is actually a man who was the secretly paid publicity adviser of the America First movement, Lindbergh, Wood, Wheeler, and a man who also has secretly solicited large sums of money to maintain and operate an office here in Washington set up for the sole purpose of embarrassing the Administration in its war effort, with a view to the coming Congressional elections.

The man is and he was retained by James Forrestal, Under Secretary of the Navy, by letter dated March 4, 1942.

emplaining the nature and wrgency of our production drive. As you know, this was not my mission in New York, but I had some time between appointments and thought it would be useful to tell personal acquaintances about the campaign. I told them it seemed to me that our national safety might depend on how much complete, wholehearted cooperation we got from industrial and financial management circles in the next six weeks.

I found that a number of them had the impression that the Management-Labor Committee plan, adopted from English experience, was said to be a "plot to Sovietize America." I explained to them that the origin of this version was the Berlin radio on March 4 (about which we have talked before and about which Mr. Helson made his speech last week). One friend of mine mentioned the name of in this connection. I realise that I have no direct official concern in all the above, but I do believe I would be remiss in my duty as an American citisen and as a government employe if I did not do everything proper to bring this matter to the attention of the appropriate persons.

I do believe this is a shocking situation in which a man who is the secret and guilty acting adviser of an agency that has persistently performed Hitler's work in this county — and who has secretly solicited money to set up an agency in Washington for the express purpose of embarrassing our war administration at a critical time — should certainly not be permitted to remain a responsible efficer of government in a position where he can effectively and apparently has been effectively attempting to sabotage the war effort.

I do not like to meddle in things which do not directly consern me and I certainly have plenty to do to keep syself busy, but I did think it was my duty to look into this thing within the time and means I had available; I believe it is my duty to acquaint you of these facts; and I carnestly wrge you to acquaint Mr. Nelson, Secretary Enox, and the President with these facts. I think also you should pass this information along to Measure. Morriths and Henderson since they were also involved. At the very least, I think this entire matter should be thoroughly investigated by the appropriate agency and if the statements made to me are borne out, I believe the proper authorities should seriously consider federal criminal action to determine whether an effort has been made to obstruct our war effort.

From time to time Henry Raynter has been furnishing leads as to some of the secret backers of America First. On March 20 in a memorandum I set forth considerable of this material and the Director stated "I think we should get to the bottom of this mess." This information was furnished to the Attorney General. However, it does not appear that any of the individuals were interviewed who had a part in the backing of America First.

AT SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

This report is being written at the request of the Bureau made by letter dated March 16, 1942, which requested that a review of the files in the Field Division be made for background information and that following that investigation be made to determine the present activity existent.

No active investigation has been conducted, however the fellowing information has been obtained from the files of the same extent from memorands in the Field Office file.

The files reveal that a newspaper article dated February 10, 1941 announced the organization of a Local Committee of the America First movement in San Diego with offices at 644 San Diego Trust and Savings Bank Building. Appearing as Chairman was Colonel GEORGE W. FISHER of the United States Army Reserve, who is stated to be a politician closely identified with the Republican Party who has in the past been accused of Anti-Semitism... It is noted that

The first meeting which is known to have been held by this Organisation to which the public was invited was held on March 13, 1941 at the Russ Auditorium where Governor MafollETTE appeared. InfollETTE delivered a speech which the files revealed to have been Anti-British and Anti-Administration. These files further indicated that the Auditorium was only partially filled and that from the applause the impression was gained that the gathering was made up principally of Anti-British individuals as everything that was said in ridicule of Britain was readily applauded while remarks which were pre-American received only moderate applause.

It is to be noted that is the subject of file 676 in the San Diego Field Office where memoranda indicate that he was against this country's entry into War but that he was not pro-German. The file also indicates that he was in opposition to the ROOSEVELT adminis-

Information from the files indicated that at the time of this meeting the organisation in the Diego had 416 members.

The next meeting revealed was held on May 22, 1941, at which time Colonel FISHER stated that it was his intention to resign from Chairmanship on May 26th as he had been recalled to active duty in the United States Army. The thought was expressed by members of the Committee that the next Chairman should be an individual with a military title or a businessman of consequence with a good reputation.

The files

B. ABBET was elected to the position of Chairman effective July 1, 1941.

ABBET was formerly District Attorney in San Diego.

On June 6, 1941 another public meeting was held at the Lincoln School, at which time Dr. RICHARD F. CARLYLE delivered the address. The files revealed that this speech was decidedly anti-administration and that the statement was made by CARLYLE that the Government was crooked and was really in the hands of criminals. He criticised the infirmities of the President's Cabinet. That file also indicated that those in the audience had stated that there were approximately 340 persons present, most of whom were judged to be past 45 years of age and more than half of whom were thought to be of German descent.

the building a number of Communists of were distributing pamphlets advertising a peace mobilization meeting to be held on the following Friday.

Information from this informant's files revealed that the Committee in San Diego was having some difficulty in obtaining adequate finances to carry on its operations and that on June 10, 1941 had circularised all of its members and those on its mailing lists offering 100 "Defend America" seals at $1.00.

でする。

The next large meeting to be held in Southern California was on June 20, 1941 at which time Colonel LIMDEERCH addressed members of the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE at los Angeles. Active solicitation was made in San Diego to obtain a sufficient number of reservations to charter a special train from this city but only 104 reservations were gotten. Of these only 44 actually traveled to Los Angeles by train although approximately 150 others were reported to have driven there.

The expense involved in preparing posters and in the effort to obtain a large number to attend this meeting caused the Committee to have a deficit of approximately $200.00. It is reported by the informant's files that at this meeting the Socialist Labor Party and members of other groups distributed circulars. On this trip this informant states that many derogatory remarks were made concerning President ROOSEVELT and his Cabinet.

In an attempt to improve finances, a meeting of the Budget Committee was held on July 1, 1941 and it was approved that dues of $1.00 per month would be charged for each member who could possibly afford to pay that sum. Previously the organisation had been operating chiefly on a contribution and membership fee basis.

In July of 1941 the files was organized that a colored section of the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE was organized in San Diego. Those members belonging to that organization were very mild in their ideas and favored aid to England, although they were apparently not anxious to send any men to foreign countries for purposes of war. The files of this informant failed to reveal any activity on the part of this colored section.

On August 1, 1941, at a meeting of the members of the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE, it was announced that a Women's Group was to be organized with the first meeting to be held on August 7th. At the first meeting of that Group there were 18 members present and by August 19, 1941, the membership had grown to 38. Also in the month of August, chapters under the supervision of the San Diego Committee became active in La Mesa, Chula Vista and Imperial Valley, California. Each of these had its Local Chairman, but operations were conducted through a Headquarters Office in San Diego under the direct supervision of the San Diego Committee. Membership in these groups was not large there being approximately 50 in La Mesa and Chula Vista and in the vicinity of 100 members in Imperial Valley.

On October 3, 1941 a large public meeting was held at the Ford Bowl in Balboa Park, San Diego, at which time Senator HERTRAM K. MHEKIER was the feature speaker. The files revealed that there was an attendance of approximately 5,000 people and that a large percentage of those attending appeared to be members of the Industrial Class. It was estimated that approximately 75 men in uniform were also in attendance. These files further indicated that there was a good representation of local Communists and Bund members present. There was stated to be no enthusiastic applause and it was also commented that literature was placed on all cars parked within the vicinity of the suditorium by those alleged to be Communists announcing a speech to be delivered in the following week entitled, "Foe of Appeasers." At this meeting FRANK O'FARREIL is stated to have said that the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE telephone wires had been tapped and that membership rolls had been checked for Communists by the FEI.

The following morning on October 4, 1941, there appeared in the San Diego Union and reappeared in the afternoon paper the following quotation, "Frank O'Farrell, of the America First Committee, under suspices of which Wheeler spoke, charged the Federal Bureau of Investigation had 'tapped' our wires and looked over our membership lists looking for Communists."

Special Agent in Charge HAROLD MATHAN contacted who stated that as far as he knew no such activities had been participated, in by the San Diego Office of the Bureau and that he himself did not hear the statement made by O'FARRELL. He stated that he regretted that O'FARRELL had made that statement.

Special Agent in Charge HAROLD NATHAN also contacted

The matter was brought to the attention of the Editor-in-Chief of the San Diego papers, Mr. E. T. AUSTIN, by Special Agent in Charge MATHAN and the morning issue for October 7, 1941 of the San Diego Union covered a statement that the FBI had not been active whatsoever in that direction.

An apology was made by General WOOD who was a National Leader of the organization.

On Movember 10, 1941 a public meeting was held at the ROCSEVELT Junior High School and was conducted entirely by the Women of the San Diego America First Committee. The speaker was Dr. HYMAN KISCHNER who is of Jewish descent. The attendance which amounted to 633 individuals was indicated by the files to have been made up principally of 2 those of German extraction. A contribution of $100.00 was taken up in the 67D form of a collection.

It was noted that the files indicate that considerable dissension arose among members of the women's Division of the America First Committee and that meetings frequently were accompanied by personal arguments among those present with regard to individual beliefs.

On November 22, 1941, 100 hocal members of the America First Committee were addressed by Judge EDWARD J. KELLEY, who at that time stated that he was not a member of the Committee. It is noted, however, that the files indicate that KELLEY was one of the early members of the Committee. KELLEY'S speech indicated an Anti-Dritish inclination as revealed by the files of this informant and stated that Britain was a real disturber of the World for generations past. Some disorder was noted at this meeting and the audience had to be brought to order by those on the platform.

was consulted on May 1, 1942, as to any information that he may have of activities of this Committee at the present time and it was stated by him that there is no activity whatsoever existent. He said that his informants had been very closely connected with the Committee and would be aware the moment that any activity began. It was further stated that

A perusal of the morgue records at the Morfolk Virginian Pilot reflected that on September 13, 1941 an article was printed entitled "DUNNING Warns Against War." The article reflected that acting chairman A. J. DUNNING, JR. told members of the local America First Committee on September 12, 1941 at Birtcherd's Dairy that they should make their voices heard against this effort to entangle us in the eternal bickerings and strife and murder in old world affairs. Will conduct a very discreet investigation to determine whether the set up by the America First Committee in the Newport News area is now being used by foreign interests or by individuals cooperating with foreign interests in such a manner as will interfere with national defense effort.

It is suggested that approaches to persons who were formerly connected with the committee should be made only after it has reasonably been ascertained that they are not part of any underground organization now functioning.

DETAILS:

At New York City

In view of Bureau reference letters indicating that efforts were possibly being made to keep the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE alive and active and the possibility that such might be used in a manner detrimental to the best interests of the United States, a review of miscellaneous information on file in the New York Field office and concerning the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE disclosed the following information:

Under date of December 12, 1941, whose identity is known to the Bureau, in a memorandum to the New York office reported as follows: "A highly confidential source has reported that E. W. CREGORY, head of the speakers' bureau of the subject committee, presented a teletype message that he had received from General WOOD which read 'Don't give up the sponge. The America First Committee will continue on a changed platform against Communism, totalitarianism, etc. "".

A memorandum from the same source dated January 9, 1942 reported that, "Since the outbreak of the war many committees were started by america First members and their affiliats of the Christian Front'. The official purpose of these committees is to provide entertainment and social facilities to soldiers and sailors and to do a lot of flag waving. But in many cases the under-lying motive is to establish contacts with the army or Navy for propaganda purposes, impressing upon the man that they will only fight and die so that Communism may flourish here.

"These committees are particularly active in the Cueans and Brooklyn sections of New York City and the driving personalities behind them are the same that used the America First Committee for anti-administration and anti-Jewish propaganda prior to the outbreak of hostilities".

Under date of January 12, 1942 a memorandum from the same source stated as follows: "At the recent meeting of the executive board in Chicago, General Wood had a fight on his hands before he could put through a resolution dissolving the America First organization. The New York crowd favoring LINLBERGH wanted to keep it alive because the organization was going into politics and they had spent $34,000 for advance publicity books, etc., which is now almost a total loss. However, the New York crowd which is also connected with a good many Catholics in the New York-New England area, has decided to carry on. They are trying to think up some special patriotic outfit under which they are going to work. No matter what the cutfit's name is, the same mess of pro-Nazis, Coughlipites, etc. will be somested with same."

Attention is also called to the reports forwarded by the Eureau to the New York Field office secured from a confidential source which report the meeting held at the home of Mr. EDWIN S. WEBSTER, JR., Beekman Flace, New York City, former New York secretary of the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE, and attended by approximately 50 persons formerly active in the New York organization. It should particularly be noted that following the speech by COLONEL CHARLES A. LINDBERGH at such meeting, in which Lindbergh stated that America First can not be active at the present time, Mr. HORACE J. HORACE Voiced his sentiments for keeping the organization active inspite of the necessity for the leaders of the AMERICA FIRST, such as General WOOD and EDWIN S. TEBSTER, JR., to remain quiet. At such time HAASE is reported as having indicated his intentions of keeping the organization active in a quiet way and of offering to maintain the organization files and records.

Also contained in the copies of such confidential reports is a report of a similar and smaller meeting at the apartment of MRS. MARIE D. HILLIARD, 7 Park avenue, New York City, on December 17, 1941, the attendance of which was largely composed of former active members in the New York organization of the PMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE. It is reported that HORACE J. HAASE spoke at this meeting concerning the needs for a new organization and it is reported that a desire for such was indicated by such former members as MRS. HILLIARD; Mr. CULLEN, former chairmen of the Bay Midge unit of the america First Committee; MRS. MARJORIE DANE, now connected with momen United; AMOS R. E. FINCHOT; EDJIN S. WEESTER, JR.; and JOHN G. SCOTT, editor of "Money", who it was reported would print the advertising for the new organization in his paper "Money" and would mail out 10,000 copies.

A copy of a confidential report dated January 17, 1942 from the same source and transmitted to the New York Field office by the Bureau stated in substance that the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE is going to be kept intact and it is believed that the FORD interests in Detroit, Michigan are going to finance it in a careful manner; that the organization is not going to mix into the war very much but will be kept intact for the purpose of carrying on the hate campaign against President Roosevelt. It was further reported that GEPAID L. K.—SMITF of Detroit, Michigan has socretly been on the FORD payroll for at 13ast 3 years and that the Central Control Commission of the Communist Party believes that GERALD SMITH has the complete mailing lists of the AMERICA FIRST group.

The New York files also contain a memorandum from Confidential Informant a dated January 24, 1942 captioned AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE; MISS MARJORIE MENNEDY, 1711 Pophero Avenue, Bronx, N.Y.; and which states as follows: "On January 22, 1942 a meeting and dinner of former workers of the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTES was held at JOE KING'S RATESKELLER located on Third avenue and 17th Street, New York City. Hiss Kennedy was in charge of this dinner committee and mailed out notices. She was a stenographer with the NO FOREIGN WAR COMMITTEE and later with the America First Committee. She is described as a rabble rousing type of person.

A confidential memorandum from the same source under date of January 31, 1942 states as follows: #It is believed that the XMERIC: FIRST group in the west under the leadership of the COUCHLIN followers are soon to come out with a new outfit. When they do, JOHN LATERIS will quietly approve. ISHS has been receiving praise from the Boughlin followers recently and this praise is being used in almost every section of the country. According to reports from the CIO at Washington the group has carefully set up the country into districts. They have revised all the mailing lists and in addition they have made arrangements with other groups which can be classified as pro-Nazi for an exchange of mailing lists. This arrangement is now in effect and many of these pro-Nezi groups are circularising so called patriots with the sale of literature, etc. These lists are not being carelassly handled because of the fear that some may demand a government investigation of their activities. However, it has been learned that the AFERIC: FIRST and their so called supporting groups have now a secret mailing list of 8,476,000 names of people in this country. A wast number of this list are on the west Goest and letely a great many of the foreign speaking groups have been circularized. There is no doubt but that certain sections of names from the major lists have been used in sending out this mail."

under date of rebruary 9, 1942, memorandum furnished the following information to the New York Field office:

"An AMERICA FIRST underground organization under the leadership of CHARLES'

A. LINDBERGH is being formed. The first evidence of this is two secret meetings which were held at the homes of persons high in the AMERICA FIRST organization on Lecember 17, 1941. More than 50 persons were present at 10

to hear CHARLES A. LINDBERGH counsel the continuation of the AMERICA FIRST type of organization. The second meeting, held a few days before in an apartment on lower Park avenue, was sponsored by a women who was one of the New York heads of WOMEN UNITED, America First auxiliary. It is under stood that these are the first of a series of house parties which will keep alive America First contacts.

"The meeting at the Beekman Place address was a dinner given for the mombers of the speakers' bureau of america First. Those present were the minor subleaders; borough heads, district heads and leading speakers The second meeting help at the lower Park avenue address discussed the formation of a new organization with a more open anti-Seritic Under date of February 25, 1942 the Boston Field office in a letter to the Bureau and under the caption GIFTS FOR DUR BOYS, AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE CROUP; INTERNAL SECURITY with a copy for New York advised as follows: "From a reliable and confidential source it has been reported that literature and requests for contributions are being distributed under the title of 'GOB'. The letterhead lists the office as being 150 Broadway, New York City. The Gifts Ecadquarters is room 11M. Plaza Hotel, Wow York City. Literature states that if we must have a war we must win the war and claims that the intent and purposus of the group is to boost the morale of our men. It is suggested that these gifts be not legs than the amount of $500. Active are MRS. ID: N. 3-COOPER, Mr. and Mrs. HOLMES, JOHN GURKE, THEIMS RETRICK, MRS. De LUCCA, Mr. and Mrs. AMGE PINCHOT, Mr. and Mrs. HIXDORF and AFDREWS: ITE, who is Bronx chairman of the america first Committee, and MRS. EXMETT of the No foreign War Committee. These names will be recognized as active america Firsters which proves that this organization is not disbanded but intends to operate in an underground fashion."

In an effort to ascertain more definitely the nature and extent of the alleged present activities of the America First Committee in New York Informant at such time City, agent contacted stated that he has not been in close contact with any of the mambers of the organisation or reliable informants concerning same for some time. However, he stated that it had been his observation that numerous of the more radical members of the original americs First Committee in New York City were carrying on their anti-war, anti-administration agitation through other new organizations. He stated that he believes the most active of these newly formed groups are AMERICANS FOR PEACE at 1165 Broadway, New York City, which has recently been organized by HORACE J. HALSE, who was formerly quite active in america First Committee particularly in the Brooklyn section of New York City; and WOHEN UNITED under the leadership of Er. and Ers. CH-RLE NIXDORF and BEATRICE SROW, 54 West 46th Street, New York City. He exhibited to agent a copy of a mimeographed statement recently circulated by HOR DE J. hansE and AMERICANS FOR PLACE and bearing Haase's name as acting executive chairman of such organization, such statement setting forth the principles and aims of the new organization, informant remarking that he believed such statement indicated that this group is presently acting for the america First interests in New York City. Informant made such statement available to agent and photostatic copies of such are being retained in this file in the New York office and also will be furnished the Bureau and interested offices.

At the time of this interview stated that he believes considerable information pertaining to any present activities of the America First Committee in New York City could be obtained from are mentioned by the Bureau in its memorandum concerning the AMERIC. FIRST COMMITTEE forwarded with reference letter of March 16, 1942. However, inasmuch as the files of the New York Field office contain considerable questionable information concerning it is not deemed advisable to make contact with him at this time. Informant advised that he would attempt to discreetly secure any information available concerning the present activities of the american first group which he would promptly furnish to the New York Field office.

upon interview by agent advised that

He stated that during the summer of 1941 it had become apparent to him that the organization membership was becoming largely foreign and possibly subversive. He stated that he had maintained some doubts concerning the organ- ... izers and officers but because of his belief in the basic isolation principles of the America First Committee he had continued working with it although from time to time he would furnish information concerning questionable members to the New York Field office. He further stated that during the summer of 1941 definite friction had developed in the New York organization because of the radical tendencies of some of the officers, principally upon the anti-Semitic issue, and that a radical group headed by EDWIN S. WEESTER, Jr., secretary, who is himself violently anti-Semitic, and a group which in his opinion is more conservative although called radical by its opposition headed by JOHN T. FLYNN, chairman, were distinctly divided and friction was prevalent principally because of the anti-Semitic issue. He stated that it was his understanding that because of the differences and friction in the New York organization.

had been sent from Unicago to New York city to attempt to effect a reconciliation and the smooth operation of the New York organization. According to informant, main job in the New York organization had been in this line.

Concerning the actions of the New York organization following the opening of hostilities on December 7, 1941, advised that upon December 8, 1941 representatives from all chapters had congregated at the Committee headquarters, 515 Madison Avenue, New York City. VINCENT GLACUINTO chairman of the Bronx chapter, was selected as spokesman for the group and following a conference with JOHN T. FLYNN, AMOS R. E. PINCHOT, EDMIN 3. WEESTER, Jr., and SVELYN PALKER, all members of the New York executive committee, GIAQUINTO advised the chapter representatives that an executive committee meeting with all members present would be held at headquarters that efternoon, December 3. At the afternoon executive committee meeting, it was decided unanimously (after telephonic communications with national headquarters in Chicago) to suspend all further activities pending a final decision of the national committee at an executive meeting to be held in Chicago on Lecember 12. Pending this meeting, only county headquarters were to remain open, no more literature was to be distributed and all posters were to be taken down.

On December 13, JOHN T. FLYNN returned from the national executive committee meeting in Chicago and immediately sent a report to chapter chairmen advising them of the decisions of the national committee, which were briefly as follows:

- 1. Official dissolution of the AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE in the interests of a national unity.
- 2. The forwarding of all records and money on hand to the national executive committee in Chicago for a final accounting and disposal.
- 3. The destruction of all signs, posters, literature, letterheads, etc. end discontinuance of all activities under america First auspices.
- 4. The payment of two weeks advance salary to all employees, terminating their employment on December 27, 1941.

continued, saying that JOHN T. FLYNN had carried out the mandates of the national committee. He had stationed a guard from the Holmes Protective Agency at the New York headquarters to insure the safety of the records until they could be delivered to Chicago. The employees were paid and all offices were closed. The general consensus of opinion of the organization was that although they did not want war the best thing was to pitch in and help win the war in the interests of national unity. However, informant stated that the extremist or radical element referred to previously has, in his opinion, constantly refused to recognize the mandate of the national executive committee. He stated that the first sign of an attempt to carry on activities against the administration and the war was the party held for the former street speakers of America First at the home of EDWIN S. WEBSTER, JR. on December 17, 1941 at which LINDBERGH spoke, which masting was referred to previously in this report.

Immediately following this mesting, former AMERICA FIRST members were quietly sounded out as to their opinions and feelings for continuing AMERIC, FIRST activities under an entirely new setup. The spark plug of this movement is MRS. ELICE HOLMES, formerly in charge of the america First chapter office at 67 Liberty Street, New York City, and whose husband has been a stock broker in New York City for many years. MRS. HOLMES is violently anti-Semitic and has openly boasted that she can raise unlimited funds. Informant stated that she is known to have displayed checks totaling several thousands of dollars the morning after LINLBERGH's speech at Des Moines, Iowa in September of 1941. Informant further stated that although the meeting of AMERIC: FIRST personnel which was held at JOE KING'S RATHSKELLER, Third avenue and 17th Street, New York City, on January 22, 1942 and which has been referred to previously in this report, was sponsored by MARJORIE KENNEDY, who worked on the filing system at America First headquarters, New York City, he stated that Miss KENNEDY has neither the brains nor the initiative to formulate or control group activities. He said that it is known that MRS. HOLMES was responsible for such meeting and is one of the key persons in the present activities of keeping the America First group alive. He advised that MRS. HOLMES is aponsoring a new organization entitled, "Gifts For Our Boys" which is situated at 150 Broadway, New York City, and that the meeting on January 22 referred to above was the first open attempt to reorganize the old america first members.

Although more than 100 invitations were sent out for this meeting, only 66 attended, among whom were MRS. HOLMES; KATHERINE LERKIN; M.RY NORTON, sponsor of the Impeach Roosevelt Movement; ANDREN SMITH, secretary and treasurer of the Bronx county chapter of America First; TRUMAN BLACK MOOD, FRANCES ZIMMER, all of the above mentioned individuals having been active particl ants in America First work in New York City. It was agreed at this party that similar parties would be held for the express purpose of reorganizing America First members but it is significant that it was also agreed not to mention AMERICA FIRST COMMITTEE but to organize an ostensibly new organization.

First, is working with MRS. HOLM is end ANDRE: SMITH to organize the new group. Stated that MRS. De LUCCE is not anti-Semitic and has an abundance of energy and makes friends easily but stated that he believes she is impressed by the meetings and because of the fact that she has a son in the army and because she had been to dinners with several prominent people she is easy prey for any scheme similar to that of the new organisation.

Informant stated that a second meeting was held on January 23, 1942 at the Forest Hills Inn, Forest Hills, Long Island, invitations having been sent out by MRS. ARTHUR G. JUST, former chairwoman of the Elmhurst unit of the Queens chapter of America First Committee. He stated that approximately 80 people attended this meeting and he believed it significant that no collection of funds or solicitations were made to help defray the reunion expanses, indicating in his mind that some of the original financers of the america First group in New York are behind the stated that at this meeting Mr. HENRY new organization. CHRIST, former chairman of Cueens County America First, spoke against forming any new organizations and expressed the hope that those members would do all in their power to aid the war effort. However, informant expressed his opinion that Mr. CHRIST's sincerity along such lines is doubtful and he does not believe contact with him in this investigation would be advisable. He stated that none of the parties present who were at the former meeting on January 22 at JOE KING'S RATLSKELLER made their presence known although it is probable that more than a few were present. He stated that he believes that unless many of the former members of the america First Committee are completely fooled by this small group of extremists who are trying to promote disunity under the guise of helping the boys in the Service, the new organization, GIFTS FOR OUR BOYS, will be limited to the same small extremist element which created the organization.

It should be noted that according to Informant, following the official order of dissolution of the America First Committee, all funds and membership records were to be forwarded to Chicago headquarters for final accounting, distribution and disposal. However, he stated that he is sure some of the individual chapters had retained most of their membership files and that these are now in the possession of individuals. As an example of this, he stated that he knows that still maintained in her personal possession most of the membership records of that unit. He stated that he believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records and has no doubts that the believes he has access to those records.

He also stated that the directors of the New York America First organization had maintained a special file record of all contributors of $500 and over which, he stated, was always closely guarded and supervised.

Following the dissolution of the organization, according to this file was taken by Mr. E. DUDLEY STIM, treasurer of the New York organization, and removed to his office at the NATIONAL INVESTORS CORPORATION, 120 Broadway, New York City. He pointed out that possession of this file is deemed highly advantageous, particularly from the standpoint of securing further contributions in movements along the same line and stated that he feels sure such is being preserved by Mr. SWIM at his office for future use.

At the time of this interview.

concerning information which he might have in his possession indicating the continued activities of individuels and organizations connected with, or springing from, the america First organization in New York City. It should be noted that under date of March 1942 informant had furnished to the New York office a report concerning the organization AMERICANS FOR PEACE and HORACE J. Hasse, the pertinent contents of which in connection with this investigation are hereinafter set forth.

become a member because of his being drafted. However, he sent a $2 con tribution to HAASE.

KURT MERTIG and his CITIZENS PROTECTIVE LEAGUE, well known to the Bureau and the New York Field office, even took up a collection for HAASE, HAASE having spoken twice before MERTIG's group within two weeks, both times demanding that america get out of the war and saying that, "our first objective is the earliest possible peace". A report of HAASE's speeches before the above mentioned meetings was contained in the New York World Telegram for March 20, 1942 entitled, "Peace Speaker 'Found No Nazis in Yorkville'". Informant's report indicated that HAASE had excused himself to MERTIG for what he had told the newspaper reporter and assures MERTIG that he considers him a good citisen.

MRS. A. C. PATERSON, Hotel St. George, Brooklyn, 75 year old speaker for america First Committee; JOHN G. SCOTT, editor of "Money"; and CHARLES INGERSOLL, editor of DEMOCRACY, are all reported 100 percent with HAASE. It should be noted that investigation has disclosed that both SCOTT and INGERSOLL share office space with HAASE at 1165 Broadway, New York City and MRS. PATERSON is actively working for HAASE in his office.

A Queens group of emerica First Committee members grouped around do not want to cooperate with HAASE because he is not radical enough in their estimation.

pertaining to and indicating continued activities of the AMERICA FIRST organization in New York City

The following information is set forth and is being set out in chronological order as of its receipt by him:

January 1, 1942 Informant reported a definite split between the followers of JOHN T. FLYNN and EDWIN S. WEBSTER, Jr. The Webster group felt that FLYNN is too radical although he has been, and always will be, opposed to the introduction of the Jewish question into the organization. Report indicated that Informant was in contact with WOMEN UNITED organization and secures the santiments of America Firsters from such source.

This also reported a meeting of women at the Rotel Plaza for the purpose of organizing GIFTS FOR OUR BOYS, such meeting having been organized by

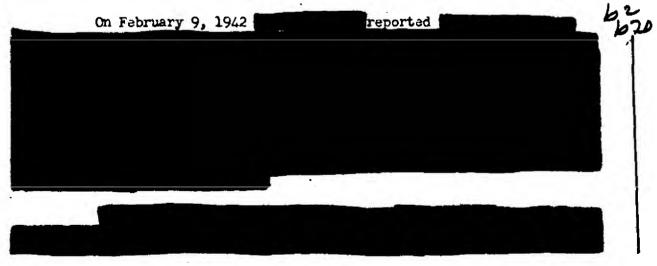

On January 12, 1942 Informant's reports indicated that GIFTS FOR OUR BOYS was composed principally of the BOYS was composed principally of the organization; MRS. BOSE De LUCCA of the Cueens chapter of the America First Committee, who allegedly stated that she could circularize 45,000 members and raise $1,000 in a week; MR. ANDREW SWITH, leader of the Bronx County chapter of America First Committee. However, Informant reported that there was a definite split between and because of irregularities on the part of the because of irregularities on the part of the because of irregularities on the part of the because of differences in views, it being reported that the was severing her relations with the organization and forming an organization of her own entitled SALUTE OUR YEN, INC.

On January 15, 1942 Informant's report stated that so far as known EDVIN S. FEBSTER, Jr. has not attempted to organize a new group of old america First members. However, it reported that the Brooklyn organization of america First had made such an attempt but that such had bogged down for lack of leadership.

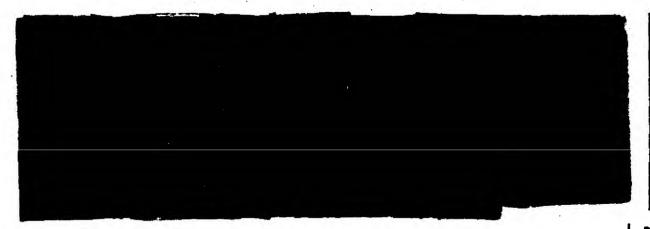

On January 24, 1942 Informant reported that LaWRENCE DENNIS, who is known as the author of "The Coming American Fascism", and publisher of the Weekly Foreign Letter, was planning for continuance of America First Committee propaganda with the help of GENERAL WOOD and LOUGLAS STUART. The purpose of the new program was allegedly to stop the war and by advertising the menace of the white nations, America, Britain and Germany, weakening or destroying themselves by continuing the war to the advantage of Russia and Asiatic countries. It was reported that DENNIS was attempting to get backing for his program from the old guard of the America First Committee.

On February 3, 1942 reported that there was a move underway to solidify ALERICA FIRST COMMITTEE members into a new organization to fit the present situation or to merge it with some organization friendly to the America First Committee and operating on a basis to the liking of the leadership of America First Committee. It was reported that in Detroit, Michigan negotiations were in progress between America First Committee leaders and GERALL L. K. SMITH of the COMMITTEE OF ONE MILLION for unification and consolidation of these two organizations. Informant stated that the America First Committee in Detroit and vicinity would probably move enmass into Smith's organization.

On February 9, 1942 reports indicated that HORACE J. HAASE was beginning work as assistant editor on the STATE COURIER of the State Republican League, Union City, New Jersey under CHARLES INGERSOLL who is editor of DEMOCRACY and who reportedly shares office space with HAASE. Informant reported that HAASE in this work helps to gain influence in Republican Party politics which would permit him to tie it in with revised america First groups.

On february 11, 1942 informant reported that ELASE had received no reply concerning his request for sid from EDMIN 5. EBSTER. Jr.

also reported was reported that HAASE's principal concern is to reorganize and to bring together in one large group all of the former Isolationists and anti-administration elements. It was stated that he is restive in his present flag waving job but hopes to get a purmanent, organizing job from whatever new movement emerges from the remnants of the emerica First Committee. It was stated that he desires to enlist the support of the German-American element.

On February 16, 1942 reported that formerly of the KEEP AMERIC. OUT OF Mak CONGRESS and COMMITTEE FOR a LEMONCRATIC PEACE and now organizing the POST WAP WORLD COUNCIL, was urgently seeking the support of

On February 25, 1942 report stated that MRS. ALIDE HOLMES, former chairwoman of the America First unit at 67 Liberty Street, New York City, was continuing the organization and promotion of GIFTS FOR OUR BOYS at 150 Broadway, New York City but little was known concerning the results of her efforts as yet. On March 2, 1942 HOMACE J. HAASE was reported as collaborating with Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES NIXDORF of WOMEN UNITED who had promised him 100% aid from their organization. It was also indicated that support would be forth coming from formerly active in Brooklyn America First organization.

Informant's report dated March 14, 1942 stated that EVELIN PAIM R of New York America First had arranged a meeting between L.WRINCE DENNIS and COLONEL LINDBERGH, DENNIS desiring to convince Lindbergh to solicit funds from HENRY FORD for the continuation of America First activities. However, it was reported that LINDBERGH declined any proposal made by DENNIS, it further being indicated that most of the America First members looked upon EVELYN PALMER as an Nazi agent and feared too close association with her.

Under date of March 19, 1942 Informant's report contained the following allegations secured from a source of information in Chicago: GENERAL WOOD is reported to have choice documents of the America First Committee from all overthe United States, secured at the time the organization was dissolved, in his SEARS ROEBUCK COMPANY office. Whenever former leaders of the America First Committee in Chicago meet they talk about the absolute necessity of a compromise peace with the axis. On their program, the drive for such a peace will follow the pre-election campaign. LINDBERGH's name is frequently mentioned but apparently he is completely silent, which is probably part of a well planned scheme.

reported that EDWIN S. WEBSTER. On april 7, 1941 Jr. had apparently refused to become a member/or to contribute to HORACE J. HAASE's organization, AMERICANS FOR PEACE; also that H. DUDLEY SAIM, ... former treasurer of the organization, had apparently indicated no desire to cooperate with hamas although he had not flatly refused cooperation. This report stated that WEBSTER does not trust HanSE and he not only refused to become a member of AMERICANS FOR PEACE or to contribute, but even refused to give HAASE recommendations to any other America Firsters. Blso reported was the fact that Dk. EUCH. MNAN and REVEREND OLSON were the only members of the executive board of the former Brooklyn america First Committee who had favorably reacted to HAASE's letters. It was reported that REVERE'D OLSON was arranging a meeting at his Lutheran Church in Brooklyn for the 15th of april for the express purpose of affording the opportunity to speak and further his organization plans. At this time it was also reported that handE intended publishing a semi-monthly news letter, the purpose of which was to coordinate all peace movements.

It was stated that he had suggested the idea of unification and coordination to approximately 50 organizations.

On the same date it was reported that

For the information of the Indianapolis field division, there was also reported who expressed her desire to organize a chapter of AMERICA'S FOR PEACE in Indianapolis and who stated that she is willing to personally pay some of the expenses for a mass meeting in a hall seating 2,000 persons if HAASE would come to Indianapolis to deliver an address on "All Out against the administration".

Also reported was that DR. BUCHLINAN and REVEREND OLSON were making efforts to organize a Brooklyn chapter of AMERICANS FOR PEACE, the meeting place of which was to be kev. Olson's Lutheran Church in Brooklyn. It was reported that former America; Firsters would meet there to discuss effective measures of building up AMERICANS FOR PEACE to a strong organization in Brooklyn.

also obtained photostatic copies of two printed statements made by her in opposition to war and the draft bill and asking for peace, one being addressed to the Congress of the United States and bearing date of December 15, 1941. In such statement, dated December 15, 1941, states in effect that the war is an inside job and a plot to get the United States into a world revolution; that she has had inside information prior to Pearl harbor through sources in Naval Intelligence concerning a "mass murder" in some outpost; that the President should be impeached and has been working more for foreign interests then for the United States and calling for a negotiated peace and "traditionary policies of Isolation".

In the other statement of dated March 4, 1942, she discusses her association with the late SEN-TOH LUNDEE and the injustice done to GEORGE SYLVESTER VIEWICK. The defends Congressmen hartely FISH and terms PRESIDENT HOOSEVELT a deliberate traitor.

Also furnished to the New York office with the above was a photostatic copy of a statement of indicating his accord in a "general peace offensive" Dutined by the MERICANS FOR PZ-CZ organization and expressing his belief that such movement, under the leadership of HORACZ J. HAASE, will loom as a formidable force in the months to come. However, this statement does not indicate any more than passive agreement with the activities and sympathies of such organization.

attention is directed to the article appearing in LIFE magazine of'april 13, 1942 entitled, "The Voice of Lefeat", specific attention being directed to that section of the article dealing with New York City, much of which has reference to HORACE J. HAASE and the AMERICANS FOR PEACE organization. It should be noted that such article states that the real sim of AMERICANS FOR PEACE is to "break down the united American war effort" and it also attributes to HamSE the claim that such would be done through "small peace groups led by comparative unknown" being organized in various localities which would carry on their work locally and not seek to form a national organization. Haase reportedly stated that such groups will carry different names and appeal to all kinds of political prejudice. The article referred to also states that "Haase has used the Brooklyn mailing list of emerica First to circularize more than 400 chapter chairmen and other leaders in this movement." It should be noted that the article referred to also makes mention of the meeting of top ranking emerica Firsters held at the home of EDGINS. WEESTER, Jr. in December, 1941, and mentions the continued activities of a few leading American Firsters such as MRS. LIVINGSTON RONE SCHUYLER,

Also furnished by the Pureau is a copy of a latter dated March 7, 1942 addressed to the "Editor, America, 329 West 110th Street, New York City" and signed by hokace J. Hanse, which is also apparently an effort to interest such individual in the newly formed organization and secure publicity for such. In the publication america, also furnished by the Bureau, is a copy of a communication addressed to Hokace by "National Director" under date of March 24, 1942 indicating an interest in Hanse's organization and his desire to cooperate. The Bureau also furnished photostatic copies of a mimeographed sheet beginning, "Fellow american" and published by AMERICANS FOR PEACE and a mimeographed sheet beginning, "About the temporary chairman of americans for Peace".

Copies of all the mimeographed or printed material which have to date been put forth by HOTHCE J. HARSE and the AMERICAND FOR PERCE organization have been secured through Confidential Informants listed in this report.

history of the America First Committee of the Kansas City Chapter which was prepared by and this history is being set forth below for informational purposess

The Kansas City Chapter of the America First Committee had its inception at a luncheon given at the Hotel Muchlebach, 11-20-40. This luncheon was given by Mr. H. W. Luhnow, President of the Wm. Volker Company. Present by invitation from Chicago were, Mr. Regnery, Mr. E. Douglas Stuart, Jr., Mr. Bliss, and Mr. Hanford McNider. Thirty-five or forty other local guests were also present. Among these, Mr. Ray F. Moseley, President of Moseley and Company, organizer of a similar idea "Stay Out of War Society," presided at this meeting. After speeches by the America First group and an explanation of what they stood for, the meeting voted Mr. Luhnow should, as a committee of one, select a working organization.

Out of this meeting was formed a Kangas City Chapter with Mr. Ray Moseley Chairman, Mr. Porter Hall and Mr. H. W. Luhnow as Vice-chairman, Mrs. E. H. Vincent, Secretary, and Mr. David Childs, Treasurer. Included also in the Executive Committee were, Mr. Roy K. Dietrich, Mr. Heath Moore, Mrs. E. C. Meservey, Jr., Mrs. Pranklin Murphy, Dr. Bruce R. Trimble and Mrs. R. J. Higgins. Approval from Chicago was granted this line-up but no charter sent. Whereabouts of notification unknown.

The first office was opened at 1017 Baltimore Avenue, with Mrs. B. H. Vincent in charge. After a period of six weeks the office was closed, due to lack of urgency in the war situation and the loss of office space to permanent renters. In May, when conditions seemed to justify the reopening of an office, one was opened at 1008-1010 Main Street, with Miss Lenore Harline in charge. The opening of this office followed the Clark Rally which was held at the Scotish Rite Temple. Both Senator Bennett C. Clark and Ex-Governor Alf Landon spoke to a capacity crowd. Among those who came to the Main Street address was Mrs. Ethyle A. Stevenson, who made a filing system and stayed to assist Miss Harline. On June 9th this office space was also rented permanently and necessitated the AFC moving to 1006 Baltimore Avenue.

On June 19th, the Hye meeting was held at the same place as the Clark Rally, after which a small steady influx of new members made their appearance. We began to receive numerous threatening notices through the mail and a huge red "V" was painted on the window one night. Mrs. Meservey resigned from the Executive Committee. Forman Stamps, University of Kan mas City student came to assist with the work, thereby bringing the number of wolunteer office workers to three.

The Executive Committee participated in so far as some of them gave discourses over the radio, introduced guest speakers, and attended Executive meetings to decide the activities of the Chapter etc., Mr. Moseley asked to resign at this time, due to heavy business demands of his company. He was persuaded to remain and the Committee was reorganized with him as Chairman of the Advisory Committee exception, being Dr. Bruce R. Trimble, who was elected Executive Director of the new Executive Committee - Lenore Harline, Secretary, Ethyle Stevenson, Treasurer. Mr. Roy K. Dietrich resigned from the Executive Committee before the Committee became the Advisory Committee. One of the main reasons for reorganisation was the definite need for a more active local office to hold local meetings, have speeches and keep the people interested — the members of the Executive Committee could not devote all their time to the furtherance of this goal due to business demands.

On August 9th the office moved again to 1009 Grand Avenue. This was by far the best location having a large display window. The Committee went forward with new impetus and a small news bulletin was planned and started. We were doing fine with as many as thirty-five people coming in a day, when the owners decided to sell the building. The entire window space, with the exception of about five feet was blocked up with a huge yellow and black "For Sale" sign. Callers fell off and a mild depression set in — but the situation readjusted itself and though the number of callers was never the same, we still were going forward. Incorporation papers had been filed but had not been approved.

By the first of September the organization depended mostly upon the publishing of "Shield America" in its endeavor to keep the country out of war and availed themselves of the use of radio programs and letters sent to members along with the telephone groups lending their support. With the start of cool weather there was a period of intensive propaganda used against use Almost every morning before opening up it was necessary to remove empty liquor bottles from in front of the door and erase red swestikes from the small evailable window space. After about ten days this stopped. With the organizing of the gigantic letter writing campaign through Chicago for all Chapters to write to Congressmen, the Mansas City Chapter organized a letter writing group, the effectiveness of which far exceeded our idea of successful cooperation. Thousands of letters were sent to both Houses of Congress from Kansas City. This was all done in the attempt to per suade Congress to uphold the Neutrality laws

Advised that there was to be a national convention in Washington, D. C. the Committee sent Dr. Trimble and Ethyle Stevenson to represent the Kansas City Chapter. From this convention, new enthusiasm was instilled in the Kansas City office and the letter writing campaign completed. A series of radio speeches and round table discussions were heard over the radio stations — eight in number. On November 14 Mr. Moseley resigned from the Advisory Committee. The office again moved to 642 Law Building, 12th and Grand, the last home of the America First Committee in Kansas City.

On December 8th, following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Mr. David Childs resigned from the Advisory Committee and the remaining committee woted to follow the lead of Chicago and dissolved.

The America First Committee in Kansas City was a continuous up hill fight with not a single newspaper or public instrument on our side. However, with all the stumbling blocks in our path, we slowly and steadily gained numbers and I am sure that we will not be forgottene also furnished a copy of a letter addressed to him by Kansas City, Missouri, dated 1-10-42, which advised that the day following Japan's attack upon Pearl Harbor the America First Committee at Kansas City, Missouri, received a telegram to stand by for further orders. Subsequently a letter came which asked for a committee meeting to ascertain the opinions of committee members as to the future status of the America First Committee, A meeting was held and a telegram was sent to the Chicago headquarters that the majority of the advisory committee favored adjournment. Subsequently all files of the America First Committee at Kansas City, Missouri, were forwarded to the Chicago headquarters. stated these files were to be stored in General WOOD'S safe at Sears Roebuck and Company, Chicago, Illinois, and their reports on the committee's activities would be sent by the Chicago headquarters to the Dies Committee.

the America First Committee in the State of Missouri, so far as he knew, was now non-existent. He stated at one time he heard that who resides at Missouri, was somewhat of the isolationist and was sympathetic towards the ideas of the America First Committee. He stated if he were in it, he would probably so advise; that he was considered as a fine, patriotic man and would disclose any information he might have.

stated also that a Miss EVA JOHNSON, deceased, had likewise been sympathetic with the movement in Columbia, Missouri.

Outside of these two people he stated he has never heard of any activity on the part of the committee. He stated there was some local talk about the America First Committee but no organization had ever taken place and no one had ever attempted to organize it in Columbia generally. He stated the community around Columbia was generally very bitter toward the committee and due to BENETT CLARK'S connection with this committee he had lost favor with the voters of Missouri.

The following persons were contacted, all of whom are reliable and are closely connected with political movements in the State of Missouri:

CHARLES SEIBOID United States Commissioner

said that last summer he had heard some talk relative to the America First Committee in Jefferson City but that he had never heard anything specific about it and had never heard of anyone in Jefferson City being connected with it.

stated that he was on a committee in charge of the Lindbergh trophies and had come into contact with the America First Committee in St. Louis, Kissouri, and for that reason he had taken a vigorous part in the Committee to Defend America in opposition to the America First Committee. He stated he had never heard of any attempt being made to organize the America First Committee in Jefferson City; that

It was considered possible, therefore, that because of the fact that the same had been mentioned as a possible member and leader of the America First Committee, that the new group now being formed might be an organisation of the nature indicated by the Bureau, formed for the purpose of keeping alive a nucleus which might later be used in a way detrimental to the present war effort.

In connection with the America First Committee, it is recalled by the writer that one ZELLA BOSSEN HONSKA, who has written articles for the paper "Publicity" published by KLMER J. GARNER at Wichita, Kansas, at one time in an article appearing in "Publicity" signed as the secretary of the America First Committee.

(Grand Rapids file 100-997) The greater portion and the control of the Executive Committee appears, however, to have been made up of those individuals who were conscientious isolationists. This information was furnished by of excellent character and reputation, was on this committee and was familiar with the activities of the organization. He further informed that JOHN E. DEODGETT, JR., was elected President or Executive hairman after the group began to function. The activity in Grand Rapids consisted primarily of sending out bulletins and also the feature event was a speech on May 15, 1941, by Senator NIE. informed that on December 7, 1941, MR. BLODGETT forwarded a bulletin to all members advising that the Committee had ceased to function, and that everyone should strive to their utmost towards full cooperation in prosecuting the war to the fullest extent.

Any information coming to the attention of this office, which may indicate that the America First Committee may be continuing under other auspices or other names, will be given immediate attention, and the results thereof will be furnished to Chicago.

disloyal Americans, but rather sincere isolationists who believed that the United States should stay out of foreign entanglements and were willing to go to almost any means to avoid entering the European conflict. He further advised that he believes since the attack on Pearl Haroor by the Japanese, these people have truly abandoned the America First Committee and have no longer any sympathies with the program formerly promogated by that organization.

The Informant stated that he had been reliably told that all of the State records were in the possession of MERLE H. MILLER, local attorney who was State chairman of the America First Committee

and said that his committee had received newspaper clippings from the Chicago Daily News of February 12 and 22, 1941 indicating that the German-American National Alliance was financially supporting the America First Committee. He said that the Indiana Committee for national defense was opposed to the America First Committee and had sent a story to the newspapers to the effect that the German-American Alliance was lending financial support to this particular committee.

A clipping appeared from the Indianapolis Star, dated February 23, 1941 which set forth that WILLIAM FORTUNE, director of the United States Chamber of Commerce, was appointed as chairman of the ward of directors of the local chapter of the America First Committee. The clipping set forth the following information: Mr. FORTUNE is also a member of the central committee of the National Red Cross.

The local chapter of the America First Committee was organized February 22, 1941, following a meeting at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. MEHLE H. MILLER, temporary executive committee chairman, announced that the bulk of the work would be carried on by a group of younger men, but that policies would be directed by a board of directors composed of the following citizens, in addition to Mr. Fortune:

JOHN W. ESTERLINE, chairman of the board of Esterline-Angus Company; president of the Community Civic Association, and leading figure in the city-manager movement from 1921 to 1929. A. E. BAKER, 1941 honored citizen of the Indianapolis Community Fund.

MRS. BRANDT C. ADOWNEY, a member of the board of directors of the Indianapolis Council of Federated Church Women, and member of the House of Representatives of Marion county.

JAMES I. XROBB, president of the State Council and regional director of the CIO.

DARAFLICKINGER, captain 30th infantry, 3d division, who served overseas in the last war; past president of the Indianapolis Association of Life Underwriters and past president of General Agents' and Managers' Association of Indianapolis.

RAYMOND CX FOX, of Fox & Fox Insurance Agency, and past president of the Indianapolis Insurance Board.

ROBERT L. BROKENBURR, member of the State Senate from Marion county; past president, Indianapolis branch of Mational Association for the Advancement of Colored People; director of Flanner House; member Community Fund Budget Committee, and assistant manager of Madame C. J. Walker Manufacturing Company.

The REV. C. H. McPHRETERS, pastor of the North Methodist Church.

Offices of the chapter were to be opened immediately at 30 North Pennsylvania Street. Among those attending the meeting were WILLIAM L. FORTUNE, BURCH NUMBEY, JOHN BRUKH, RALPH SWINGLEY, COHDON CUTTLER, DAILYOUNG, HAPRY T. ICE, STAYLEY LAWTON, FRED WELLMAN, EDWARD MCLAREN, DOYLE ZARING, BRUCE PALMER, TED WICHOLAS AND EDWARD J GREEN.

On February 11, 1941 a letter was directed by this office to the Bureau setting forth that the group was one/McCARTHY, first name unknown, but well known in Cincinnati and connected with the Veterans of Foreign Wars at Norwood, Chio. McCARTHY is said to speak occasionally on radio programs in the Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati.

During his talk, McCARTHY stressed the point that the United States should do absolutely nothing to assist Great Britain in her present struggle against the Axis Powers. He condemned the British for their attitude in the past toward the United States and during the course of his talk he mentioned in somewhat complimentary terms the organization, America First, Inc. He did not attack the United States in any way and did not especially make any pro-Hazi utterances but as indicated above his talk was particularly anti-British. He left the impression that he particularly favored such an organization as America First, Inc., although he did not definitely state that he was in any way connected with that organization. The only information contained in the files of the Indianapolis Field Division concerning America First, Inc. is contained in a memorandum on subversive organizations in the United States sent out to the various field divisions and the Bureau by the Chicago Field Division by letter dated November 27, 1939. A copy of this letter was furnished the Cincinnati office for its information and assistance should the Bureau desire further inquiries made with reference to the identity and activities of speaker McCARTHY.

A clipping dated April 3, 1941 from the Indianapolis Star announced that a forum was planned to follow a talk by JOHN T. FLINN, writer and economist, who would discuss "The Next Step to War" on that date in the Cadle Tabernacle under sponsorship of the America First Committee of Indianapolis. The meeting was opened to the public without charge as announced by MERLE H. MILLER, executive chairman of the committee who was to preside at the talk.
Dr. ERROL T. ELLIOTT, pastor of the First Friends Church, was to give the invocation, and Miss JANET AIER FAIRBANKS of Chicago, former Illinois member of the Democratic national committee, was to introduce Mr. FLYNN. Community singing was led by CURTY DAVIS and MYRON RODARAUCH was the organist. The reception committee which was to greet Mr. FLYNN upon his arrival in Indianapolis included BURCH NUMBEY, DOYLE TARING, EDWARD MCLAREN, DAN YOUNG and Mr. MILLER.
Mrs. BRANDT C. COWNEY was the hostess for the dinner to be held at the Athletic Chub. At this dinner Mr. NUMBEY was to be chairman and toastmaster.

Another clipping from the Indianapolis Star, dated March 2, 1941, stated that MERGE H. MILLER addressed a group of the hundred women at an America First Committee meeting on May 1, 1941. Mr. MILLER at this meeting explained the purpose of this committee, and said that "the difference between a dictatorship and a democracy is that in the latter people don't have to take stuff lying down".

The people can say whether they want to go to war. At this meeting the following committee chairman: Publicity, Mrs. J. B. MOTIE; arrangements, Miss MAN HAIES; attendance, Mrs. H. BURCH NUMLET: finance, Miss JANS DECLER; membership, Miss EVELIN VICK. The committee was to meet on May 2, 1941 for the purpose of perfecting plans for Senator Clark's speech.

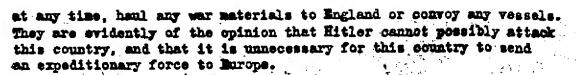

had attended the meeting scheduled for mothers of draftees. This meeting was in charge of Mrs. BRAHDT DOWNEY, Indianapolis, Indiana.

The speaker was Mr. MERLE H. HILLER, Indianapolis, Indiana, a local attorney.

The meeting was attended by approximately 105 ladies, the majority of whom were under 35 years of age, and apparently of a high type and of good appearance. We did not attend the meeting personally, but obtained the following information from several different ladies with whom we talked after they had left the meeting.

The meeting was mostly for the purpose of organizing, and much time was spent in appointing committees, etc. The campaign for members is to be conducted mostly by telephone.

The purpose of this organization, as far as could be learned, is to avoid sending troops to Europe, at any cost; they are not opposed to aiding Britain short of war, but believe this country should first adequately arm itself before sending sumplies to England, and when supplies are given to England they should be hauled, and convoyed, by the English Navy, and the United States should not.

We talked to an unknown lady, who left the meeting during the time Mr. MILLER was speaking, and she said she interrupted his speech when he mentioned something about this country being able to survive if completely isolated. She said he did not answer her question, and that she was asked to sit down by Mrs. DOWNEY; and she then left the meeting and as she did so, Mrs. DOWNEY requested her name and she gave it to her.

After Mr. MILLER had completed his address, he left the meeting and he was followed into the corridor by a lady whom we believed to be Mrs. DOWNEY, and she thanked him for his speech and asked him to try to make arrangements to have CHARLES LINDRERGH come to this city to address one of their meetings, and Mr. MILLER replied he had already tried to make such an arrangement and that he probably would be able to get LINDRERGH here in the near future.

A clipping dated December 2, 1941 was taken from the Indianapolis News and was headlined "America First in '42 Campaign". This clipping was headlined in Chicago on December 2 and added that the America First Committee would support Congress Candidates who have approved war policies. This clipping is quoted as follows.

The America First Committee reported last night that it will take a hand in the 1942 congressional elections by supporting senators and representatives who "have kept faith with the people"s mandate to avoid participation in the war."

The committee said flatly, in announcing the program, that will not be used as an attempt to build a third political party.

The organization, opposed to American intervention in conflicts abroad and sponsor of a series of rallies in all parts of the nation, outlined its political policies in a statement issued by its national committee.

"Today America is confronted with a condition which strikes at the basic principle of the American way of life--government by consent of the governed," the manifesto sets forth.

Tascism results when the legislative branch of the government surrenders to one man its power to make decisions for the people. In the face of this same trend toward Tascism in America the immediate duty of the American people is to return to congress only those representatives who faithfully execute the people's trust.

"This program will be undertaken in a spirit free from partisanship and without regard to the political affiliations of the candidates."

The statement contends that congressmen who oppose steps toward war had been subjected to "drastic pressure by the administration," and adds:

*Mr. WENDELL WILKIE, too, has indicated his intention to attempt to purge Republican senators and representatives who dare to support the pledge in their own party platform against entering the war. The America First Committee, therefore, now feels it to be its duty to enable its members in any state or district to counteract these pressures and themselves to mobilize their supporters behind those public officials who oppose further steps to involve us in war.

On December 13, 1941, a clipping was taken from the Indianapolis Star which set forth that the America First disbanded in Indianapolis. This clipping reads as follows:

Indiana headquarters of the America First Committee will be closed immediately and members will be notified by letter during the week end that the committee has been disbanded, MEKLE H. MILLER, Indiana chairman, said yesterday.

Mr. MILLER's announcement followed a statement in Chicago by national directors announcing distanding of the organization.

However, an American Red Cross unit organized under anspices of the local America First Committee will continue in operation, Mr. MILLER said.

Two other services operated by the local America First group will be retained. One is a group which has supplied Sunday night dinners at the local Service Elub. The other helps to provide recreational programs at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

These people have been, according to their own statements, very active in the America First Organization, financially and personally.

and the writer checked the "morgue" of the Indianapolis Star and obtained the following information:

In a neeting held May 29, 1941, an address was given by BURTON K. WHEELER, senator from Montana, before eight thousand persons. Chairman of the meeting was JOHN. ESTERLINE, and Senator WHEELER was introduced by MERLE H. MILLER.

On July 2, 1941, a meeting was held at 40 North Pennsylvania Street, at which WILLIAM H. REMY, attorney, was the principal speaker.

On July 25, 1941, GLEN M. FUNK addressed a gathering at 40 North Pennsylvania Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

On August 6, 1941, Professor CLARENCE MANION, Notre Dame University, gave an address at the World War Memorial. This meeting was prosided over by JOHN BRUHN.

A meeting was held at 40 North Pennsylvania Street on August 14, 1941, and was addressed by Hiss ALICE WALK of Hobert, Indiana, who is a teacher in the Calumet area of immigrants. Mrs. HAZEL THOMSON, Indianapolis, was in charge of the meeting.

On August 11, 1941, a clipping appeared which set forth the State Committee. This Committee was organized along the lines of permenent Congressional districts and political subdivisions. A chapter was to be organized in each county of the State. This statement was made at a meeting at which MEHLE H. MILLER presided and the following persons were leaders at the meeting:

On September 12, 1941 CLARENCE E. BENADUM of Muncie. Indiana, an attorney, addressed a meeting of America First, 40 North Pennsylvania Street, and on September 19, 1941 WILLIAM A. MULLFORD addressed a meeting at the same place.

On September 13, 1941 a statement appeared by WALTER FRISBIE and MERLE H. MILLER in which they criticized CHARLES A.

LINDRERGH for his speech at Des Hoines, Iowa shortly prior to that date.

On October 317 1941 A. R. YOUNG, for whom no residence was given but who was born in England, gave a talk for the America First Committee at 40 North Pennsylvania Street. A meeting was held on October 3, 1941 at Caleb Mills Hall at Indianapolis, at which Reverence EPHRAIM D. LOWE, secretary of the Indiana Christian Missionary Association, gave the invocation. MERLE H. MILLER was the chairman, and Dr. JOHN A. BRIEN, University of Notre Dame, was the principal speaker.

A clipping dated May 3, 1941 announced the meeting on May 4 at which United States Senator BENNETT CHAIR CLARK was to give an address on the subject "Shall We Go to War" at the Cadle Tabernacle. This article announced the meeting of out of town delegates which was under the supervision of EARL JEFFRY, who is in charge of State organizational work for the national America First Committee, and WALTER SHIRLEY, who was head of similar activity for local groups.

On May 4, 1941, an article appeared stating that Senator CLARK was to be introduced by WILL HAY REMY, former county prosecutor, and that the invocation was to be given by Father JOHN PATRICK REIDY of Ladywood School. BURCH KUNLEY, vice-chairman of the Indianapolis chapter, presided. At the time of his arrival, Senstor CLARK was met by a group of overseas veterans, under the leadership of DAN/FLICKINGER. This article also set forth that various committee heads had been chosen, and the chairman of the womens' organization was Mrs. DAW YOUNG; vice-chairman, Mrs. MERLE MILLER and Mrs. VEDNA CARTER. The secretary was Mrs. H. F. WILLIE, and the corresponding secretary was Miss LYDIA BATES. The secretaries of various committies, publicity arrangements, and attendance were the same as set forth previously in this/report, and the co-chairmen of these committees were set forth as follows: publicity, Mrs. RUSSEL/COX; Mrs. MARY PATTERSON, member; co-chairman of the arrangements committee was Mrs. FRANK ECK; members of the committee, Mrs. JOHN GAGE, Mrs. NORVIN STRICKLAND. The co-chairman of the attendance committee was Mrs. DON McINTIRE.

On May 22, 1942, an article appeared in which MERIE H. MILLER, executive chairman of the America First Committee in Indiana, announced that BURTON K. WELLER, Senator of Montana was to speak.

On October 28, 1941 an article appeared announcing that a state convention of the America First Committee would be held in Indianapolis on Movember 8 and 9, 1941. This convention would be under the leadership of Miss VERA SESSLER of Fort Wayne, who had charge of the membership committee. FRANK MURRAY of South Bend was in charge of the program, JOHN PAUL BASSETT, Kokomo, was in charge of meetings, KENNETH RAUB, Gary, Indiana, in charge of publicity, and FRED WELLMAN, Indianapolis, was to be in charge of finance.

On November 2, 1941 an article appeared in the Indianapolis Star stating that the State America First Committee was to convene on November 8 and 9, 1941, Indianapolis, and that FRED WELLMAN, Indianapolis business man, was to be the convention chairman of this first state convention of the America First Committee.

On November 9, 1941 the temporary state officers were announced as follows:

Temporary State Chairman

Co-chairman

Temporary Secretary

MERLE H. MILLER Indianapolis, Indiana Mrs. O. C. BARON Elkhart, Indiana Mrs. MILDRED GILLIE Indianapolis, Indiana

Of particularly interest at this time is to be noted that in the clipping dated March 13, 1941, at which time it was announced that the America First Committee was being disbanded, Mr. MILLER the state chairman advised that three service groups organized by the America First Committee would remain in existence. These were the American Red Cross Chapter organized by the America First Committee; the group which supplied Sunday night dinners at the local service club, and the group that aids in the recreational programs at Fort Benjamin Harrison for inductees. Efforts will be made to ascertain whether these three service groups are still in existence and who is directing their present activities, if such is determined.

and received literature from him which is being forwarded by to the Bureau.

In the first piece of literature was a copy of instructions on "How to Write a Letter to Washington". This leaflet, although not signed by the America First Committee, was obtained but the source of the leaflet is not remembered by him. The leaflet sets forth the correct form for letters to be addressed to the Honorable FREDERICK E. VANNUTS, Senstor RAYKOHD E. WILLIS, and also Representative LOUIS LUDLOW.

in the Chicago Tribune February 26, 1941. This article set forth the reference should be made to encourage the establishment of new chapters, particularly in those regions in the east where internationalism is rampent, and it pointed out that the opposition to the America First is formidable. Another article obtained was a booklet entitled "America and the War", by ROBERT K. HUTCHINS, president of the University of Chicago, with the sub-title "The Path to War is a False Path to Freedom".

Also obtained was a copy of a drawing by PARRISH, which was copyrighted by the Chicago Tribune in 1941, headed "Foreign Entanglements". This drawing showed President ROOSEVELT, WINSTON CHURCHILL, and JOSEPH STALIN seated above a barbed wire entanglement in which a United States soldier was helplessly entangled, and evidently mortally wounded.

A booklet entitled "Our Foreign Policy," by General ROBERT E. WCOD, acting national chairman, America First Committee, was also obtained This booklet was a speech made by General WCOD before the Chicago Council on foreign relations. It bore the national address of the America First Committee, 141 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, and stamped thereon was the address of the America First Committee of Indianapolis, 30 North Pennsylvania Street, Indianapolis, Indiana. entitled byc Another booklet was obtained "Can Hitler Invade America?" which was published by the America First Committee, 141 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois. This booklet was comprised of facts compiled for the America First Committee by JOHN T. FLINN, from information gathered from military authorities and writers on military affairs. The sum and subtance of the parohlet as to the invasion of America is to the effect that no foreign power or group of powers can operate across the ocean and stand in combat with the American Navy and planes operating from home bases. On the back page of the booklet appeared the national committee of the America First Committee, and a statement to the effect that the greatest service to be rendered to the country is to write at once to your Senators, your congressman, the President of the United States and your local newspaper protesting against any further steps to involve the United States in any further wars. It also set forth that the individual should send in his name as a member of the America First Committee, which is working to save America from this war.

turned over to the writer a form bearing the address of the America First Committee of Indianapolis, Inc., 40 North Pennsylvania Street. This card on one side had space for the person to "pledge opposition to Communism, Nazism and Fascism," and stated that "I want to help keep America out of Europe's war, and agree to write my congressman". This card had space for the name, address, and telephone of the individual, and at the rottom had spaces to be checked if the individual wanted to "write letters, telephone, work with speakers bureau, do clerical work, organize others, whatever you need". On the back of the card appeared the principles of the America First Committee which are set out as follows:

- The United States must build an impregnable defense for America.
- 2. No foreign power or group of powers can successfully attack a PREPARED AMERICA.
- 3. American democracy can be preserved only by keeping America out of this war.

was distri- 67 / Another leaflet obtained buted by the America First Committee of Indianapolis, 40 North Pennsylvania Street, entitled "What Can I Do?" with the sub-heading "Democracy in Action". This leaflet sets forth that only the opposition of the people through their letters to Washington has thus far kept us out of war. Members of Congress and the President, too, are both guided and restrained by the views of the people back home. It goes on the may that it is the duty of the citizens to write to their Senators, Representatives, and the President on any important issue and that the most important issue at the present time is the question of the nation going to war. The leaflet further states that letters should be written at periodic intervals to the President reminding him of his pre-election promises. Letters should also be written to the editors of local newspapers and people should join the America First Committee in an effort to keep us out of war. On the back of the leaflet excerpts from the speeches made by President ROOSEVELT in Boston, New York, and Brooklyn are quoted, all of them to the effect that the President has stated that this country will not go to war.

There was also obtained the contitled "Can Hitler Invade Americal" which is a re-print from the Reader's Digest. April, 1941, the article having been written by JOHN T. FLYNN. This leaflet states in effect that possibility of invasion of the United States is extremely remote and that the United States could be entirely self-sufficient in event of a German victory. It would not be necessary for the United States to cooperate with the Germans after a possible victory by them, for they could economically best HITLER.

printed letter which, although not distributed by the imerica
First Committee, bears the heading of AMOS R. E. PINCHOT, sounsellor at law, 101 Park Avenue, New York. It is to be noted that PINCHOT is one of the national committee of the America First Committee, and thought that this letter would be of interest in connection with instant investigation.

The letter written by PINCHOT is addressed to President ROOSEVELT, dated October 24, 1941, and is extremely critical of the manner in which President ROOSEVELT allegedly was bringing the United States closer to war. PINCHOT compared President ROOSEVELT's actions and policies with those of Chancellor BISMARCK of Germany immediately prior to the Franco-German War in 1870, and expresses the opinion that President ROOSEVELT is just as responsible for the United States being brought into conflict as BISMARCK was in starting the Franco-German War.

Mr. PINCHOT also criticized the President for his handling of the firing upon of the United States destroyer GREER, and compares this incident with the Ems Telegram through which BISMARCK was able to bring about the Franco-German War.

The above letter is being forwarded to the New York office for its information in the event that it has not here to fore received copies of the same.

for our troubles than to fight for democracy at home. As Hitler made the Jews his scapegoat, so we are making Hitler ours. But Hitler did not spring fullarmed from the brow of Satan. He sprang from the materialism and paganism of our times. In the long run we can beat what Hitler stands for only by beating the materialism and paganism that produced him. We must show the world a nation clear in purpose, united in action, and sacrificial in spirit. The influence of that example upon suffering humanity everywhere will be more powerful than the combined armies of the Axis.

America and the War

Address by

ROBERT M. HUTCHINS

President of the University of Chicago

This address was broadcast over the NBC (Red) Network, January 23, 1941

SPEAK tonight because I believe that the American people are about to commit suicide. We are not planning to. We have no plan. We are drifting into suicide. Deafened by martial music, fine language and large appropriations, we are drifting into war.

I address you simply as an American citizen. I do not represent any organization or committee. I do not represent the University of Chicago. I am not a military expert. It is true that from the age of eighteen to the age of twenty I was a private in the American army. I must have somewhere the very fine medal given me by the Italian government of that day in token of my co-operation on the Italian front. But this experience would not justify me in discussing tactics, strategy, or the strength to which our armed forces should now attain.

I wish to dissociate myself from all Nazis, Faseista, Communista, and appeasers. I regard the doctrine of all totalitarian regimes as wrong in theory, evil in execution, and incompatible with the rights of man.

I wish to dissociate myself from those who want us to stay out of war to save our own skins or our own property. I believe that the people of this country are and should be prepared to make sacrifices for humanity. National selfishness should not detarmine national policy.

It is impossible to listen to Mr. Roosevelt's recent speeches, to study the lease-lend bill, and to read the testimony of cabinet officers upon it without coming to the conclusion that the President now requires us to underwrite a British victory, and apparently a Chinese and a Greek victory, too. We are going to try to produce the victory by supplying our friends with the materials of war. But what if this is not enough? We have abandoned all pretense of neutrality. We are to turn our ports into British naval bases. But what if this is not enough? Then we must send the navy, the air force, and, if Mr. Churchill wants it, the army. We must guarantee the victory.

WE USED to hear of "all aid short of war." The words "short of war" are ominously missing from the President's recent speeches. The lease-lend bill contains provisions that we should have regarded as acts of war up to last week. The conclusion is inescapable that the President is reconciled to active military intervention if such intervention is needed to defeat the Axis in this war.

I have supported Mr. Roosevelt since he first went to the White House. I have never questioned his integrity or his good will. But under the pressure of great responsibilities, in the heat of controversy, in the international game of hluff, the President's speeches and recommendations are committing us to obligations abroad which we cannot perform. The affort to perform them will prevent the achievement of the aims for which the President stands at home.

If we go to war, what are we going to war for? This is to be a crusade, a holy war. Its object is moral. We are seeking, the President tells us, "a world founded on freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom from want, and freedom from fear." We are to intervene to support the moral order. We are to fight for "the supremacy of human rights everywhere."

With the President's desire to see freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom from want, and freedom from fear flourish everywhere we must all agree. Millions of Americans have supported the President because they felt that he wanted to achieve these four freedoms for America. Others, who now long to carry these blessings to the rest of the world, were not conspicuous on the firing line when Mr. Roosevelt called them, sight years ago, to do battle for the four freedoms at home. But let us agree now that we want the four freedoms; we want justice, the moral order, democracy, and the supremacy of human rights, not here alone, but everywhere. The question is whether entrance into this war is likely to bring us closer to this goal.

OW can the United States better serve suffering humanity everywhere: by going into this war, or by staying out? I hold that the United States can better serve suffering humanity everywhere by staying out.

But can we stay out? We are told it is too late. The house is on fire. When the house is on fire, you do not straighten the furniture, and clean out the cellar, or ask yourself whether the house is as good a house as you would like. You put out the fire it you can.

The answer is that the house is not on fire. The house next door is on fire. When the house next door is on fire you do not set fire to your own house, throw the baby on the floor, and rush off to join the fun. And when you do go to quench the fire next door, you make sure that your bucket is full of water and not oil.

But, we are told, we are going to have to fight the Axia some time. Why not fight it now, when we have Britain to help us? Why wait until we have to face the whole world alone?

Think of the mass of assumptions upon which this program rests. First, we must assume that in spite of its heroic resistance and in spite of the enormous supplies of munitions which it is yet to receive from America the British Empire must fall.

Second, we must assume that the present rulers of totalitarian states will survive the conflict.

Third, we must assume that if these regimes survive they will want to attack us.

Fourth, we must assume that they will be in a position to attack us. This involves the assumptions that they will have the resources to do so, that their people will consent to new and hazardous ventures, that their task of holding down conquered nations will be easily completed, and that the ambiguous attitude of Russia will cause them little concern.

Next, if Britain falls, if the totalitarian regimes survive, if they want to attack us, if they are in a position to do so, we must further assume that they will find it possible to do so. The flying time between Africa and Brazil, or Europe and America, does not decide this question. The issue is what will be at the western end of the line? This will depend on our moral and military preparedness. A lone squadron of bombers might conquer a continent peopled with inhabitants careless of safety or bent on slavary. We cannot assume that any combination of powers can successfully invade this hemisphere if we are prepared to defend ourselves and determined to be free.

On a pyramid of assumptions, hypotheses, and guesses therefore, rests a decision to go to war now because it is too late to stay out. There is no such inevitability about war with the Axis as to prevent us from asking ourselves whether we shall serve suffering humanity better everywhere by going into this war or by staying out.

The chances of accomplishing the high moral purposes which the President has stated for America, even if we stay out of war, are not bright. The world is in chaos. We must give our thought and energy to building our defenses. What we have of high moral purpose is likely to suffer dilution at home and a cold reception abroad. But we have a chance to help humanity if we do not go into this war. If we do go into it, we have no chance at all.

THE reason why we have no chance to help humanity if we go into this war is that we are not prepared. I do not mean, primarily, that we are unprepared in a military sense. I mean that we are morally and intellectually unprepared to execute the moral mission to which the President calls us.

A missionary, even a missionary to the cannibals, must have clear and defensible convictions. And if his plan is to eat some of the cannibals in order to persuade the others to espouse the true faith, his convictions must be very clear and very defensible indeed. It is surely not too much to ask of such a missionary that his own life and works reflect the virtues which he seeks to compel others to adopt. If we stay out of war, we may perhaps some day understand and practice freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom from want, and freedom from fear. We may even be able to comprehend and support justice, democracy, the moral order, and the supremacy of human rights. Today we have barely begun to grasp the meaning of the words.

Those beginnings are important. They place us ahead of where we were at the end of the last century. They raise us, in accomplishment as well as in ideals, far above the accomplishment and ideals of totalitarian powers. They leave us, however, a good deal short of that level of excellence which entitles us to convert the world by force of arms.

Have we freedom of speech and freedom of worship in this country? We do have freedom to say what everybody else is saying and freedom of worship if we do not take our religion too seriously. But teachers who do not conform to the established canons of social thought lose their jobs. People who are called "radicals" have mysterious difficulties in renting halls. Labor organizers sometimes get beaten up and ridden out of town on a rail. Norman Thomas had some troubles in Jersey City. And the Daughters of the American Revolution refused to let Marian Anderson sing in the national capital in a building called Constitution Hall.

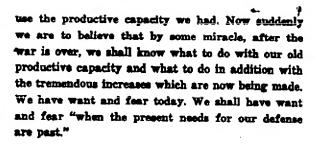

If WE regard these exceptions as minor, reflecting the attitude of the more backward and illiterate parts of the country, what are we to say of freedom from want and freedom from fear? What of the moral order and justice and the supremacy of human rights? What of democracy in the United States?

Words like these have no meaning unless we believe in human dignity. Human dignity means that every man is an end in himself. No man can be exploited by another. Think of these things and then think of the sharecroppers, the Okies, the Negroes, the slum-dwellers, downtrodden and oppressed for gain. They have neither freedom from want nor freedom from fear. They hardly know they are living in a moral order or in a democracy where justice and human rights are supreme.

We have it on the highest authority that one-third of the nation is ill-fed, ill-clothed, and ill-housed. The latest figures of the National Resources Board show that almost precisely 55 per cent of our people are living on family incomes of less than $1250 a year. This sum, says Fortune Magazine, will not support a family of four. On this basis more than half our people are living below the minimum level of subsistence. More than half the army which will defend democracy will be drawn from those who have had this experience of the economic benefits of "the American way of life."

We know that we have had till lately nine million unemployed and that we should have them still if it were not for our military preparations. When our military preparations cease, we shall, for all we know, have nine million unemployed again. In his speech on December 29, Mr. Roosevelt said, "After the present needs of our defense are past, a proper handling of the country's peacetime needs will require all of the new productive capacity—if not still more." For ten years we have not known how to

S FOR democracy, we know that millions of men and women are disfranchised in this country because of their race, color, or condition of economic servitude. We know that many municipal governments are models of corruption. Some state governments are merely the shadows of big-city machines. Our national government is a government by pressure groups. Almost the last question an American is expected to ask about a proposal is whether it is just. The question is how much pressure is there behind it or how strong are the interests against it. On this basis are settled such great issues as monopoly, the organization of agriculture, the relation of labor and capital, whether bonuses should be paid to veterans, and whether a tariff policy based on greed should be modified by reciprocal trade agreements.

To have a community, men must work together. They must have common principles and purposes. If some men are tearing down a house while others are building it, we do not say they are working together. If some men are robbing, cheating, and oppressing others, we should not say they are a community. The aims of a democratic community are moral. United by devotion to law, equality, and justice, the democratic community works together for the happiness of all the citizens. I leave to you the decision whether we have yet achieved a democratic community in the United States.

N THE speech in which Mr. Roosevelt told us, in effect, that we are headed for war, he said, "Certainly this is no time to stop thinking about the social and economic problems which are the root cause of the social revolution which is today a supreme factor in the world." But in the same speech he said, "The need of the moment is that our actions and our policy should be devoted primarily—almost exclusively -to meeting this foreign peril. For all our domestic problems are now a part of the great emergency." This means—and it is perfectly obvious—that if any social objective interferes with the conduct of the war, it will be, it must be instantly abandoned. War can mean only the loss of "social gains" and the destruction of the livelihood of millions in modest circumstances, while pirates and profiteers, in spite of Mr. Roosevelt's efforts to stop them, emerge stronger than ever.

The four freedoms must be abandoned if they interfere with winning a war. In the ordinary course of war most of them do interfere. All of them may. In calmer days, in 1929, the New York Times said, "War brings many collateral disasters. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press suffer. We think we shall be wiser and cooler the next time, if there is one; but we shan't." The urge to victory annihilates tolerance. In April, 1939, Alfred Duff-Cooper said that "hatred of any race was a sign of mental deficiency and of lack of a broad conception of the facts of the world." In April, 1940, Mr. Duff-Cooper said that the crimes of the German militarists were the crimes of the whole people and that this should be kept in mind when the peace treaty was written.

were restricted in the last war and expanded after it, that we can rely on their revival after the next one. We Americans have only the faintest glimmering of what war is like. This war, if we enter it, will make the last one look like a stroll in the park. If we go into this one, we go in against powers dominating Europe and most of Asla to aid an ally who, we are told, is already in mortal danger. When we remember what a short war did to the four freedoms, we must recognize that they face extermination in the total war to come.

We Americans have hardly begun to understand and practice the ideals that we are urged to force on others. What we have, in this country, is hope. We and we alone have the hope that we can actually achieve these ideals. The framework of our government was designed to help us achieve them. We have a tremendous continent, with vast resources, in a relatively impregnable position. We have energy, imagination, and brains. We have made some notable advances in the long march toward justice, freedom, and democracy.

If we go to war, we cast away our opportunity and cancel our gains. For a generation, perhaps for a hundred years, we shall not be able to struggle back to where we were. In fact, the changes that total war will bring may mean that we shall never be able to struggle back. Education will cease. Its place will be taken by vocational and military training. The effort to establish a democratic community will stop. We shall think no more of justice, the moral order, and the supremacy of human rights. We shall have hope no longer.

WHAT, then, should our policy be? Instead of doing everything we can to get into the war, we should do everything we can to stay at peace. Our policy should be peace. Aid to Britain, China, and Greece should be extended on the basis most likely to keep us at peace, and least likely to involve us in war.

At the same time we should prepare to defend ourselves. We should prepare to defend ourselves against military or political penetration. We should bend every energy to the construction of an adequate navy and air force and the training of an adequate army. By adequate I mean adequate for defense against any power or combination of powers.

In the meantime, we should begin to make this country a refuge for those who will not live without liberty. For less than the cost of two battleships we could accommodate half a million refugees from totalitarian countries for a year. The net cost would not approach the cost of two battleships, for these victims, unlike battleships, would contribute to our industry and our cultural life, and help us make democracy work.

But most important of all, we should take up with new vigor the long struggle for moral, intellectual, and spiritual preparedness. If we would change the face of the earth, we must first change our ewa hearts. The principal end that we have hitherto set before ourselves is the unlimited acquisition of meterial goods. The business of America, said Calvia Coolidge, is business. We must now learn that material goods are a means and not an end. We wast them to sustain life, but they are not the aim of life. The sim of life is the fullest development of the highest powers of men. This means art, religion, education, moral and intellectual growth. These things we have regarded as mere decorations or relaxations in the serious business of life, which was making money. The American people, in their own interest, require a moral regeneration. If they are to be missionaries to the world, this regeneration must be profound and complete.

TE MUST try to build a new moral order for America. We need moral conviction, intellectual clarity, and moral action: moral conviction about the dignity of man, intellectual clarity about ends and means, moral action to construct institutions to bring to pass the ends we have chosen.

A new moral order for America means a new conception of security. Today we do not permit men to die of starvation, but neither do we give them an incentive to live. Every citizen must have a respected place in the achievement of the national purpose.

A new moral order for America means a new conception of sacrifice, sacrifice for the moral purposes of the community. In the interest of human dignity we need a rising standard of health, character, and intelligence. These positive goals demand the devotion and sacrifice of every American. We should rebuild one-third of the nation's homes. We must prowide adequate medical care in every corner of the land. We must develop an education simed at moral and intellectual growth instead of at making money.

A new moral order for America means a new conreption of mastery. We must been been to reconcile 3 4 the machine with human dignity. We have allowed it to run wild in prosperity and war and to rust idly in periodic collapse. We have hitherto evaded the issue by seeking new markets. In an unstable world this has meant bigger and bigger collapses, more and more catastrophic war. In Europe and Russia the efforts to master the machine are carried out by methods we despise. America can master the machine within the framework of a balanced democracy, outdistance the totalitarian despotisms, and bring light and hope to the world. It is our highest function and greatest opportunity to learn to make democracy work. We must bring justice and the moral order to life, here and now.

F WE have strong defenses and understand and believe in what we are defending, we need fear nobody in the world. If we do not understand and believe in what we are defending, we may still win, but the victory will be as fruitless as the last. What did we do with the last one? What shall we do with this one? The government of Great Britain has repeatedly refused to state its war aims. The President in his foreign policy is pledged to back up Great Britain, and beyond that, to the pursuit of the unattainable. If we go to war, we shall not know what we are fighting for. If we stay out of war until we do, we may have the stamina to win and the knowledge to use the victory for the welfare of mankind.

The path to war is a false path to freedom. A new moral order for America is the true path to freedom. A new moral order for America means new strength for America, and new hope for the moral reconstruction of mankind. We are turning aside from the true bath to freedom because it is easier to blame Hitler

AMERICA FIRST.

The America First movement sprang into being as nearly spontaneously as any organiza tion ever did. Many men and women at almost the same moment came to the conclusion that something had to be done and done quickly if this country was to avoid folly and the disasters which flow from folly.

The President and those about him were busily spreading the false fear of invasion. The administration was receiving the powerful assistance of the William Allen White committee as it was then called. Only a few newspapers and individual voices were expressing opposition. The war shouters were having things pretty much their own way.

The turning point may well have been Mr. White's gloating speech when the press agents gave him their annual award. That declaration of how he had put his campaign over made it all too clear that unless the common prudence of the country expressed itself the decision would go by default. We should find ourselves in a war which we had not made, for spoils which we did not want; and in that war we should lose our liberty as well as hundreds of thousands and perhaps millions of our young men.

And so the America First committee came into being and into action. It grew very rapidly. It drew its strength from all walks of life, from men and women of varying political and religious faiths. Because it was the expression of the common sense of the nation, the movement was blessed from the start with common sense leadership.

There were at least two groups of noisy hyphenates who would have liked to use the committee: The professional Irish-Americans and the professional German-Americans. The committee would have nothing to do with either of them. The America First movement was and is just what its name indicates. It is against participation in the war not because it hates England, which it doesn't and not because it loves Germany, which it doesn't, but because it believes that America's foreign policy should be formulated with a view to the welfare of America and not primarily for the benefit or injury of any other nation or group of nations. Accordingly, the hyphenates and all others who had an ax to grind were given the bum's rush. Strenuous efforts have been made to get something on the committee but they have all failed. There isn't anything to get.

Today the America First movement, blessed as it is with a wise and patriotic leadership, is the most important as it is also the most promising political phenomenon in the United States. Naturally the movement got its start here in the heart of the continent because here the patriotism of the people is least alloyed. We have no colonial backgound; we have always been Americans. Que marry is America. The instinct which led to the organization of the America First committee to combat organized internationalism was strongest here, but we have no monopoly of patriotism.

The movement is spreading rapidly and its spread should be given every encouragement. As quickly as possible chapters should be established elsewhere and particularly in those regions in the east, where internationalism is rampant,

The opposition to America First is formidable. Great names in what is called Society, great names in international finance, great wealth, are encouraging the American people to believe that they can enter the war without sacrificing life and liberty. The game is a reckless one. After the dictatorship bill comes war and after war the end of the republic. It is to avoid that chain of disasters that America First came into being. A nobler cause never invited the support of patriotic men and women. The finest thing an American can do is join America First.

must be occupied.

Americans are willing to aid Britain because they hate fascism, they are against Hitler, they look upon the English government, despite its aristocratic character, and its empire, as more civilized than Hitler's dictatorship. They are willing to help through a generous sympathy. But they should disabuse themselves of the panichy illusion that they must help britain because a victorious Hitler would compare America next.

We must provide this country with defenses that will make an invasion by any force, however great, impossible. But few Americans want to create a force capable of invading Europe or Asia and carrying on an aggressive war there. AND IT IS A SIO. America First Committee Principles

- 1. The United States must build an impregnable defense for America. With such a defense no foreign power, or group of powers, can successfully attack us.
- 2. Americans should and do cherish the ideals of democracy and abhor dictatorship, but the welfare of one hundred thirty million Americans and the preservation of democracy on this continent demand that the United States keep out of foreign wars.
- 3. The cash and carry provisions of the existing Neutrality Act are essential to American peace and security. Within the limits of that Act, Americans may properly aid Great Britain. Aid to her beyond the limitations of the present Neutrality Act would weaken our defense at home, and might well involve us in conflict. We oppose any change in the law which would permit American vessels to enter the combat zone or which would permit the American Navy to convoy merchant ships through that zone, as any such course would inevitably plunge this country into Europe's war.
- 4. With proper safeguards for the distribution of supplies and the maintenance of our neutrality, Americans should, to the limit of their ability, give humanitarian aid to the suffering and needy people of England and the occupied countries.

Introducing General Wood

By Clay Judson

Former President of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations We are at a crisis in our international relations. On the decisions now made by the people of this country and their leaders may depend our national welfare for generations to come.

At earlier meetings you have had presented to you dramatically, brilliantly, emotionally, the views of those who believe that the ideal of American life now demands a full participation in the war between England and Germany, and a willingness to take all the risks of war which that involves.

Now there is another view, equally patriotic, equally above question from the standpoint of idealsbut diametrically opposed in its spiritual and its practical approach to the problem. This view sees America's destiny as the preservation of peace for its 135,000,000 people; the abstention on any account, and no matter how emotional the appeal, from European and Asiatic wars; the maintenance of the processes of democracy and of civilization.

Those who hold this view are certain that we cannot enforce democracy on the rest of the world by force and arms. They believe war will be ruinous to everything we cherish most, and they believe we can avoid war, and should make every effort to do so.

This is the view of the man who addresses you today. He was born sixty-one years ago in the State of Missouri. Forty years ago he graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point. His first military service was in the Philippine insurrection. As Chief Quartermaster at Panama during the days of the canal construction under General Goe-thals, he was charged with the duty of acquiring food, clothing, and supplies for the 40,000 employees and officials in the canal zone. During the World War he had a major responsibility for supplying our entire military establishment. After the war, in civil life, his ability gave him immediate recognition in the commercial world, where he served for ten years as President of Sears, Roebuck & Company, and is now the Chairman of its Board of Directors.

For his outstanding services during the World War he was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal. He is a Commander of the British Order of St. Mi-chael & St. George. He is a Knight of the French Legion of Honor. At present he is the Acting Chairman of the America First Committee.

I am honored in presenting to you General Robert E. Wood, who will speak on "Our Foreign Policy."

General Robert E. Wood's Speech

"Our Foreign Policy"

I hesitated to accept the invitation of my friends, Dr. Lichtenstein and Mr. Utley, to address this gathering for two reasons—first, because I do not feel on a par as a speaker with the very eminent persons who have addressed these gatherings; second, because my views are opposed to those of a probable majority of my listeners—and I may add—opposed to those of some of my dearest friends and relatives. I have a brother-in-law on the William Allen White Committee.

But it is one of the beauties of a democracy that in time of peace, at least, men are free to express their opinions and honest men respect opposing opinions if those opinions are sincere and free of ulterior motive, and now is a time for all honest men to express their convictions.

The Hour of Decision

This country is on the eve of momentous decisions. The results of these decisions may be so far reaching that they may have an effect for good or bad on the life of this country for at least a generation. I am at the stage of life when I do not care as to the effect on myself or my own generation. I do greatly care what the effects will be on my children and grandchildren and their generation.

There are two schools of thought in this country on the subject of our foreign policy. They may be termed "Interventionists" and "Isolationists." These terms are not exactly descriptive, because all interventionists are not extreme interventionists and most isolationists are only isolationists as to Europe and Asia, but not isolationists as to the balance of North America and South America.

I except from my discussion those who have ulterior motives—anything except the welfare of our country. That would include the Communists who really desire to destroy our Government; the Nazis and members of the Bund who put the interests of Germany above those of this country; some ultra-pacifists who forget the interests of their country in their desire for peace at any price; a limited number of extreme Anglophiles who put the interests of Great Britain above those of their own country.

Our Common Ground

These schools of thought are in violent opposition, but there are certain points of agreement among all classes except perhaps what may be called the lunatic fringe of our population.

These points of agreement are:

First—The necessity for a strong defense—a strengthening of our army and navy and air force. Our people are practically unanimous on this sub-ject—the only differences are on differences of detail. It is obvious that the richest nation of the world, in a world of force, must make itself impregnable.

Second-The belief that no foreign nation must obtain possession of any part of the two Americas and that the United States must be prepared to defend the North American continent, and at least that portion of the South American continent as far as the Equator. There is some difference of opinion as to whether military and naval protection should go as far as Cape Horn.

Third-Access to our great industrial plant by Great Britain within the limits of the neutrality law -that is, unlimited right of purchase by Great Britain of planes, tanks, munitions of war, raw materials from private manufacturers, provided she can pay for them and provide her own transportation. And this I may add is a very great aid.

Without this aid now being given, England could not long carry on the war, for her supplies of raw materials, her steel making capacity, munitions and plane plants are insufficient for a long major war. Without the production facilities of the United States she would be crushed. Theoretically, Germany is entitled to the same privilege—actually, on facilities, but she has no right to complain. I believe the overwhelming majority of the citizens are in accord with these three principles. I know I am. Here Differences Begin

But it is when we get beyond the third point that opinion diverges sharply. The present administra-tion in power, probably the majority of our editors and columnists, a very influential body of public opinion as represented by the Committee to Defend America by Aiding Britain is in favor of our government turning over some of our flying fortresses, more destroyers, more planes, and merchant ships. Others, even more extreme, favor an outright alli-ance with Great Britain and a declaration of war on Germany.

Now what are the fundamental arguments for this point of view? They may be reduced to three principal reasons:

First—The totalitarian state with its ideology, with its record of persecution, is repugnant to our ideals and should be destroyed, even if we have to enter a war to accomplish this result.

Second—Our own protection depends on Britain as our first line of defense, and if she falls, we are exposed to the onslaught of a totalitarian combination. Per se, it follows that we must give England all the aid we can, even at the risk of entering the Third—If Britain is defeated, it will be impossible for a free competitive, unorganized and unmanaged industrial system to compete with a totalitarian system.

War Does Not Destroy Ideologies

As to the first reason, you cannot destroy an ideology by waging war on it. The conditions created in Europe by the Versailles Treaty were largely responsible for the rise of Hitler and the Nazi philosophy. The history of Europe for the last 100 years is a story of cruelties, persecutions, injustices. No government was more repugnant to our ideals and ideas than the old Czaristic regime of Russia—it had over many years a series of pogroms, but we remained on friendly terms with Russia. Up to 1917 we had always remained true to the principles of foreign policy laid down by the founders of our country: the policy of keeping aloof from the quarrels of Europe and Asia.

The Communistic regime of Russia under Lenin and Stalin was equally opposed to our principles and was detested by the majority of our people. Nevertheless, we have maintained our relations with Russia, and we have certainly had no idea of making war on that country.

Sentimentalists or Realists?

A nation cannot be a knight-errant. It must be realistic. Great Britain, during her entire history, has been coldly realistic, and her success in building up her Empire has been due to her realism. As individuals we can give vent to our generous impulses or even to our pet hates, but our statesmen, our editors, our moulders of public opinion must consider that it is not their individual fortunes and lives that are to be considered, but those of 130,000,000 of their fellow citizens.

Now as to the second reason—our military defense in the event of a German victory. Our country has gone through a curious transformation of thought since May 10th. From an underestimate of the military and economic strength of Germany, it has gone to the opposite extreme of overestimating that strength. From some of the remarks heard on the Eastern seaboard in June, we would have thought that New York and Boston were in imminent danger of being bombed.

Bombings Alone Cannot Win

Now the events in Spain, Poland, Belgium and France showed the major importance of the air arm when supported by tanks, infantry and a modern army. But Spain showed that bombing of cities, unsupported by an army, cannot win a war or even shake the morale of a population if the nation is of tough fibre like the Spanish and English peoples.

Apparently the Battle of England is demonstrating the same principle. Unless an army can cross the Channel, the German air force cannot impose a decision on England. Casualties and material damage—yes. The 15,000 casualties in London so far are but a drop in the bucket for a nation of 45,000,000 people; more casualties were incurred in single days of the Verdun, Ypres and Somme offensives. The destruction of apartment houses, stores, public buildings do not constitute a blow to the military strength of a nation. If the docks, railroads, power plants and munitions plants are put out of commission, it does affect the military effort, but unless it is done on a gigantic scale the nation cannot be subdued, and all evidence is to the effect that military damage thus far has not been of such a serious character as to severely impair the island's defense.

Can England Be Invaded?

As for an invasion, at the great risk of being called a false prophet, I doubt whether any invasion will ever be made, and if it is attempted, it will be decisively repulsed. To land 250,000 Germans in England, with mechanized equipment, ammunition and necessary supplies, would be a gigantic operation. Once landed, that force would have to face 1,500,000 Englishmen under arms, fighting on their own island behind atrong defenses. And to land those 250,000 Germans means practically complete mastery of the air, blocking off the English fleet, complete control of the Channel—none of which objectives have yet been attained after more than a month of intensive effort. To sum up, I doubt whether the island can be conquered, and I am quite sure the British fleet cannot be put out of commission.

Now we come to our own danger of invasion and the perfectly fantastic hysteria that pervaded this country after the battle of France. I think any competent military or naval expert, certainly the vast majority, will tell you that there is absolutely no danger of an invasion of the United States even if Germany is completely victorious, and I doubt whether she will be. The amount of shipping required for the transportation of even 250,000 men of a modern mechanized army with their ammunition and supplies over 3,000 miles of ocean is colossal and it is to be presumed that our own navy and air force will not be idle.

If it is approximated or at tear exceedingly difficult for an army to cross 25 miles of Channel, what valid grounds are there for supposing that a large army can cross 3,000 miles of ocean to invade a continent?

Some will inquire—why should it not be possible for Germany to seize bases in Mexico or Central America and attack from those countries. Again, that presupposes an overwhelming sea power. But even if that sea power were present, there would again be the same difficulties of a 3,000 mile long line of communication for an invading army. And an army once landed must cross an exceedingly difficult terrain before ever arriving at the Texas border. I think that hypothesis may be safely dismissed.

Notatic come to the Mayor all Stagey—air attacks. I quote from Major Al Williams' recent speech, reprinted in the Congressional Record—"Oceans and extended lines of communications are still vital factors in modern warfare. President Roosevelt's panicky flight schedule for the air invasion of America is ridiculous, worthy of Hollywood and certainly not of the White House. To support my argument against the President's wild flight schedule for a foreign air invasion of the United States I offer a single incontrovertible reason. With all their air power the Germans could not attack and subdue England from air bases 300 to 500 miles distant. Instead they seized air bases on the north coast of Holland, Belgium and France 20 to 100 miles distant from the coast of England. Each and every stage of the fantastic itinerary for the air invasion of America would have to be conquered for the establishment of major air bases for the enemy attempting the jeb. The President must know this—but apparently the pattern is panic first, and then war."

All of this presupposes a completely victorious Germany, ready at the end of a long and costly struggle, to immediately embark on a new and perilous adventure across 3,000 miles of ocean against a nation of 130,000,000 people. The present war represents seven years of preparation on the part of Germany. So-called total war represents a prodigal expenditure of labor, money and effort. Steel is rapidly consumed, aircraft and mechanical equipment are rapidly worn out, reserves of all kinds are exhausted, not to mention the wear and tear on human beings. A nation that for seven years has been given guns instead of butter is apt at the end of this war to demand more butter from its leaders.

So on every count it seems inconceivable to me that Germany at the end of the war, even if aided by its allies, who will be in a worse condition of exhaustion than Germany itself, will attack the United States. And if this country with its 130,000,00 people and its two great natural ocean barriers cannot defend itself unaided by Britain or anybody else, it does not deserve to survive. The great nation that has to trust to others for its defense is on the downward path to destruction.

Furonc Must Have Our Goods Now as to bur commic problems. An economic war after the war—the loss of our European, Asiatic and South American trade. I have a high personal regard for Walter Lippmann's brains and ability, but I believe his picture of an unequal contest between a totalitarian economy and a free economy is misleading. After all, when two nations or two continents each have things the other needs trade eventually results regardless of the feelings each may have for the other. Europe needs us more than we need Europe—our materials and products are more important to her than hers to us. True, Germany has reduced largely its purchases from us, but more from necessity than choice. As far as South America is concerned, we can always obtain the lion's share of the trade of Mexico, Central America, Colombia and Venezuela because we buy the metals of Mexico, the coffee and bananas of Central America and Co-

It must not be forgotten that Germany put on an intensive drive for trade in South America in the period 1936-1938, and if my recollection of the fig-ures is correct, while Germany's percentage of the trade gained somewhat, the gain was not large, and it was largely at the expense of Great Britain; our trade declined only a fraction of one per cent.

We'll Get Our Share of Foreign Trade!

No man can foretell the future, but as long as we have products South America can use and above all, if they have products we can use, we will get our full share of the trade. As for Asia, the same remarks pertain as to Europe. Japan needs us far more than we need her. Our trade with Japan incidentally runs between five and six times the trade of China, whom we are making such great efforts to help. Even if Japan gets control of the Dutch East Indies—and that is not assured—she is going to be more anxious to sell us rubber and tin to obtain dollar exchange than we are to buy the products. And if war with Japan comes, we can get Bolivian tin and develop our synthetic rubber. We are certainly as resourceful as the Germans who are filling 90% of their rubber requirements with the synthetic article.

In 1937 Colombia's trade with us was 168,000,000 pesos, with Germany 40,000,000. Of Venezuela's trade, the United States took 12.5% of their imports and furnished 53% of the exports, Germany 13.6%. Of Costa Rica's imports, 42.5% came from the United States, 23% from Germany. Of her exports 45% went to the United States and 19.5% to Germany.

As for lack of organization, if needs be, we can meet fire with fire; we can set up export cartels and

The Americas Must Stand Together! Americans like myself feel that our true mission is in North America and South America. We stand today in an unrivalled position. With our resources and organizing ability we can develop, with our Canadian friends, an only partially developed continent like North America and a virgin continent like South America. The reorganization and proper development of Mexico alone would afford an outlct for our capital and energies for some time to come. And while I think we should try in every way to maintain the friendship of our neighbors to the South, I think we should also make it clearly understood that no government in Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean South American countries can be tolerated unless it is friendly to the prevent the apread of totalitarian influence there. Instead of what seems to be a sane objective we. are on the verge of throwing our treasure and our blood into a European war, with consequences that no one can foretell.

United States and that we will make every effort to

I respect the honest views of honest Americans no matter how opposed they may be to my own, but there are two matters that I resent: First is the attempt to smear any one opposed to what I might call the majority publicized viewpoint of what we should do in this war. When the editor of a New York "newspaper" denounces Col. Lindbergh as the head of the Fifth Column in the U. S., we have reached the summit of mud slinging. You may disagree violently with Col. Lindbergh, you may feel he has made serious mistakes, but you have no right to denounce a courageous, patriotic American citizen as a traitor merely because he disagrees with your views. This is as bad as the Nazis, an attempt to suppress freedom of speech.

The other point I resent is the way the issue is being presented to the American people. We are being edged into the war without the masses' knowledge. We have the anomalous situation of the polls showing a majority of the people favoring a course that is bound to get us into the war, while the same polls show 88% of the same people oppose actual entry into the war. That shows that the minds of the people are confused.

How Wars Are Sold to Us

Many of my hearers were adults at the time of the previous war and were familiar with the propaganda history of that propaganda and its falsity, read a book by Sir Philip Gibbs with the title of "Now It Can Be Told," in which he admitted the outrageous lies that were perpetrated on the American public. And Sir Philip Gibbs was no German but the leading English war correspondent, knighted by his King. The London Economist in a recent issue said it was the a question of time until American public opinion could be brought to the point where we would actively enter the war.

I believe a majority of the people who are advocating "aid short of war" do not desire us to enter the war. But there are others who do desire us to enter the war, who are taking the necessary steps to prepare the American people for active participation, who would enter it tomorrow if they dared, who are today in practical alliance with England, and unfortunately they are the people who are shaping our national policy today. You hear in Washington today that we are now in the war. You hear predictions from men, and men who ought to know, that we will actively enter the war within sixty days after the election.

The American people should think this matter through. The course we are pursuing is bound to involve us in the war. You cannot play with fire and not get burned. You cannot have your government, not private manufacturers, transfer its equipment to foreign powers, you cannot have your gov-ernment in an unofficial alliance with a foreign power, you cannot be a meddler in Indo-China, berate Italy and Germany without eventually involving the nation in war, and if war comes I venture to predict that we will repeat the history of the last war. When the declaration of war was made in 1917 originally it was intended to send only the Navy to the assistance of the Allies.

Man-Power, Too!

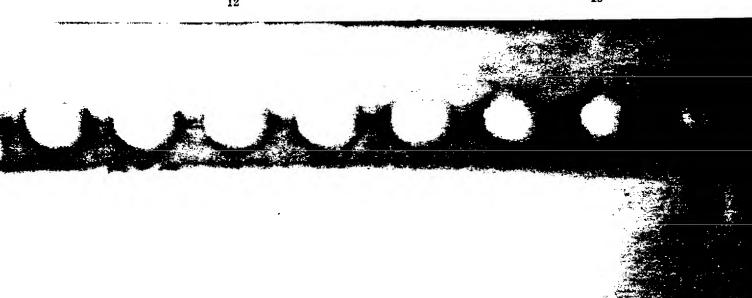

Joffre came over in the spring of 1917, told the plight of the French Army after the 1917 spring Champagne offensive, where whole divisions of the French Army mutinied, and implored us to send over a token force, otherwise France would collapse. We sent Pershing and the First Division, about 30,000 men. Then came the impending collapse of Russia, frantic calls for more men, then the great German offensive of 1918 and the rout of the British Fifth Army, more frantic appeals, until finally we put under arms 4,000,000 men, sent 2,000,000 men to France, spent 20 billion dollars and had 150,000 casualties. I need not refer to our treatment by our former allies after the Armistice. They took the loot, we did not even get thanks.

I do not often agree with the editorials on foreign policy in my friend Frank Knox's paper, but there is a recent editorial with which I am in 100% agreement. The editorial quoted two recent speeches by both Presidential candidates in which both pledged themselves never to send American boys to France. The editorial spoke of both these pledges as political bunk and very truly stated that if we entered the war we would enter it to win, and, if necessary to win, we would send an expeditionary force-and that is the absolute truth.

The People Must Know the Truth

The issue should be honestly presented to the people. If we aid Britain, short of war and beyond the limits of the Neutrality Act, it ultimately means war and should mean war. If we enter the war, we must enter it with all our strength in men and money. That is the only way to win a war.

If the military reports from abroad are correct, I feel there is no doubt that Great Britain can defend her island, her dominions like Canada, Australia and New Zealand. She may lose Egypt, the Suez and Gibraltar, though this is extremely doubtful. So far the Italians have shown no signs of real offensive strength. There is little doubt that England can make a negotiated peace by which she can keep her fleet and her colonies, but which will leave Germany the economic control of Western Europe. But she cannot decisively defeat Germany unaided. Her statesmen privately admit that, and say that for her to gain a decisive victory we will have to actively enter the war. One of the great mistakes made by the Allies in this war was that in its first six months they thought they could win a safe economical war, with France sitting behind the Maginot line and England maintaining its blockade, with little expenditure of blood and a minimum expenditure of treasure. For us to actively enter the war means ships, planes, money, men, expeditionary forces. That is the issue that must ultimately be presented to the American people, and it should be presented openly, honestly and squarely.

Our Own Democracy Will Be Sacrificed

In deciding this issue, the American people should face the costs. We start with a debt of $50,000,000,000. With the enormous cost of waging modern war, the cost of sending forces over 3,000 miles of ocean, of engaging our navy in the Far East, we would ultimately face a debt of from 100 to 150 billions. Victorious or defeated, we will be faced at the conclusion of such a war with great economic dislocations -the rich would face a capital levy, the middle classes impoverishment, and the masses a lowered standard of living and the loss of most of the social gains so far secured.

Competent observers believe that if the war is prolonged in Europe over one or two years, it will result in Communism in all Europe, and a species of National Socialism in England. If we are inof National Socialism in England. volved, it probably spells the end of capitalism all over the world.

Defend America First, Last, Always

I would unhesitatingly say to throw everything we have into a war to defend the United States or our own sphere of influence, which is the North American continent and part, if not all, of the South American continent. I do not think the American I do not think the American people should make these sacrifices to interfere in the quarrels of Europe and Asia, old, sick and overpopulated continents with ancient rivalries that cannot be healed. It is up to the American people to decide whether they want to make these sacrifices to preserve not England but the British Empire, and help regulate Europe and Asia. But they should make the decision with all the cards on the table, not misled by artifice and subterfuge.

But if that decision is given affirmatively, I think you will find Americans like myself, who sincerely believe such a course spells disaster to the nation, will be at their posts of duty in the service of this country. I am old fashioned enough to believe in the toast offered by Stephen Decatur back in 1816, "Our Country! In her intercourse with foreign nations, may she always be in the right: but Our Country, right or wrong."

Poll Tax Fight Gets Big Start: Victory Assured By Coalition

One of the greatest anomalies of modern times is slated to go. A condition in which 10,000,000 Negro and white American chizons are denied the right to vote while the nation specific billions to preserve democracy and extend the Four Freedoms to every corner of the globe, is about to be corrected. A lesson was learned in last see sion's fight to remove this dead and disgraceful weight to American progress. The Geyer-Pepper Bill was not brought by petition to the House floor for a vote uptil the secand session. The delaying tactics of the opposition, in the face of large appropriation bills, made possible a filibuser by the Southern block that killed the bill. This un-American filibuster still rankles in the minds of patriotic citizens and is predicted to be an important factor in further arousing the people to support the fight. Organized action has grown to such proportions over the last two years that a snow-balling effect is expected.
MARCANTONIO ENTERS BILL

The unified strategy has been placed behind Bill HR 7, introduced in the House by Vito Marc-antonio (ALP of NY). Petition No. S to discharge the Judiciary and the Rules Committee is now on the Speaker's desk and 14 Congress-men had already signed. The main thing now is to get the rest of the 218 signatures as quickly as possi-ble in order that the bill will come so that it will get to the Senate in machine represe time to prevent a flibuster there late in the session.

The speed with which the requi site 218 signatures are obtained depends upon the power of the drive in each Congressional District. The people of one state can not oblige a Congressman of another state to sign. The fight must be made by the people, Congressional District by Congressional District, each Congressman moved by the people he represents.

Setting up of anti-poll tax com-mittees in each Congressional Dis-trict with white and Negro organizations, labor unions and progreswin-the-war organizations spearheading, to bring pressure or each Congressman to sign the peticording to leaders of the fight. Much of this strategy was planned at the Washington Conference called by the National Conference to Abolish Poll Tax.

After this switch-blade episode, according to Thomas, the woman explained to Jones' mother that they were married. HOW COURT STRAINED

In attempting to show that the late Mrs. Jones was more white than Negro, defense attorneys de-clared that she was white up to 1927 and a Negro after that time. They went on to show that up to 1927, the Georgia law said that a son with one-eighth or less of African blood was white. The law changed in 1927, they said, making a person a Negro if he had any percentage of African blood.

Who will be the heir to the estate of the late Mrs. Maggie Petty Jones? Will the courts sule the deceased to be "White" or a Negro? Did the jurors fake an illness or were they really sick?

Answers to these questions will have to wait on father time. Maybe they will be answered during the April term of the Fulton County Superior Court when the case will probably receive another airing.

at which time he furnished additional literature issued by the America First Committee, entitled. Here is the Road to Warn. This was also made part of the Omaha file.

On September 4, 1941, there appeared in the Omaha World Herald a news item, stating that FRANK C. WARD, printing and office supplies salesman, of 2719 Fontenelle Boulevard, had said that he was the temporary Chairman of the Omaha group of the America First Committee, and that a caravan was being arranged to attend the rally in Des Moines, Iowa, where CHARLES A. LINDBERGH would be the principal speaker. WARD refused to tell the names of the other officers, according to the paper, as well as the size of the organization, date, and place of the next meeting of the group. This article also disclosed that WARD formerly operated the Ward Printing Company and present office was 202 Patterson Building. WARD stated that the men whom he shared the offices were not interested in The America First movement.

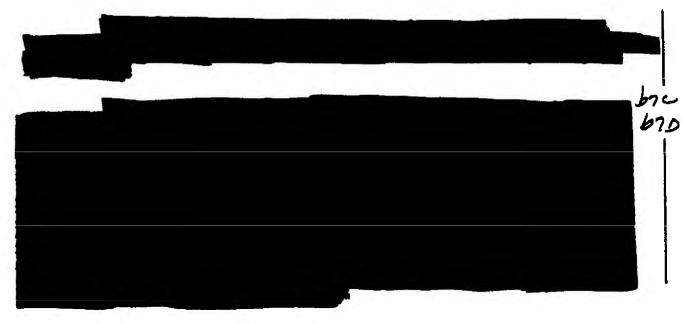

The Morning World Herald, on "ctober 3, 1941, carried a news article indicating that a America First group had been formed at the University of Nebraska, which was attended by two dozen students. At the meeting were STANLEY LOWE, Sophomore from Alma, Nebraska, who was organizer and acting Chairman of the campus group; former Congressman HENRY C. MCKEY, of Lincoln, principal speaker of the evening; LUCKEY PAUL, his grandson; and Miss MARIAM AXFORD, Nebraska Wesleyan University student and former Youth Director for Lincoln's Trinity Methodist Church. LUCKEY was said to have declared, "If we hadn't gotten into the first World War, 'Nazi or Fascism' wouldn't have happened". He cited the terrible injustices of the treaty of Versailles on Germany and the attitude of England toward war deb and payment. LUCKEY stressed the terrible cost that participation in a Luropean wer would mean, charging such participation would only serve t make a few "international financiers" rich. During the forum, petitio:

bearing resolutions that the Neutrality Act be rekined in its present form and voicing the approval of the aims of the America First Committee were passed through the crowd. The newspaper article stated that there were only three signers, one signature of which was signed "ADOLPH HITLER".

On October 23, 1941, The Morning World Herald carried an article that a constitution establishing a University of Nebraska Chapter of the America First Committee was approved by the student council at its regular meeting. AXEL LOUID-MINQUIST, Assistant Professor of Germanic languages, was said to be the sponsor of the group. The principles of the group were outlined and included; keeping out of war, preserving democracy at home, keeping naval convoys and merchant ships on this side of the Atlantic, building an impregnable defense and aiding opposed peoples in occupied countries with supplies of food and clothing. Another principle was added by the campus group, declaring the committee stands for "tolerance, human idealism and American realism", and "condemning anti-Catholidsm, anti-Semitism". The constitution provided for the immediate dissolution of the group should congress declare war.

On October 14, 1941, an article appeared in the Evening World Herald, disclosing that FRANK C. WARD, Chairman of the America First Group, in Omaha, had requested the use of one of the municipal courtrooms in the City Hall for the committee's meetings, once a week, at night. WARD was said to have advised that the committee membership had outgrown the capacity of the present meeting quarters. The motion was taken under advisement, and offered by Commissioner HARRY SQUSTIN.

On November 21, 1941, telephonically communicated with Special Agent and gave the information that he had overheard a conversation between a and another woman, which lasted for about 3/4 of an hour. They discussed the fact that everyone should help LINDBERGH and Senator WHEELER and stated that they wished someone would poison Mrs. ROOSEVELT, and that all the money goes to the Jews. that in the course of the conversation told the other party that she should get in touch with the lady at as she could be of assistance. was the number the telephone conversation was being had and which he had listened to, and that this number was listed under the name of and was admised that there was The Omaha City Directory lists a a widow, residing at and l who resides at
